UPCOMING MEETING

Wastewater Energy Recovery

Rob Haneline from SHARC Energy will be presenting on Wastewater Energy Recovery. Tired of BTUs going down the drain? Learn about a system that captures wastewater heat and puts it back into your building, thus saving you money. Everyday we spend money to heat water that gets wastefully dumped down the drain. Worse yet we then spend more energy heating cold water. We need to stop this senseless cycle of waste! Most people don't even think about this waste, and are often surprised to hear there is a solution. By pre-heating or pre-cooling the supply water, water heating or water chilling equipment doesn't have to work as hard. This results in tremendous amounts of energy, money, & Green House Gases saved.

Rob Haneline is Western Regional Manager of SHARC Energy. Rob has experience in energy efficiency and renewable energy projects for the past 20 plus years. He has implemented customized solutions that provide clients with resiliency and efficient infrastructure. His background includes electrical power, lighting, fire alarm systems, protective relaying, cogeneration, solar, and Waste Energy Transfer (WET) systems. He has held general contractor license in Idaho and Washington state and has extensive experience in engineering design, project management, design review, construction support, commissioning, and project feasibility. He is a certified energy manager (CEM) with the Association of Energy Engineers.
