UPCOMING MEETING

Main Program: Boilers and Steam System Design

Speaker: Larry R. Iverson

Join us for an informative presentation on the fundamentals of boilers and steam system design. This session will cover key concepts, including boiler types, system components, safety considerations, and efficient design practices. Whether you're an industry professional or simply interested in learning more about steam systems, this presentation will provide valuable insights into optimizing and maintaining these critical systems.

Larry graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Norwich University in 2004. After graduation, he joined the United States Marine Corps. In 2015, Larry transitioned to the steam industry as a boiler mechanic. He returned to vocational school to train as an electrician and advanced to the role of boiler combustion technician. Over the years, Larry held several leadership positions, including Service Manager, Operations Manager, and eventually transitioned into sales. While working in the boiler industry, Larry continued his education, earning a Master of Business Administration in 2018 and a Doctorate of Philosophy in Business Leadership in 2024.
