

2026 Mondo at Royal Madison – Preview

The Serb will only provide this abbreviated look into the weird little cousin of The Majors this year. Too bad suckas. The Serb got no time! As most of you have probably heard, The Serb has been so busy preparing for The Serb's Initial Public Offering of SerbX on the Nasdacky (stress of the second syllable). The Serb is purely consumed. The Serb has The Serb's priorities right. The Serb will be frank, The Serb is solely focused on putting some significant scratch into The Serb's pocket.

So the people get what the people get:

- This is the 26th Mondo (25 just came and went...nothin'!)
- This is largest and finest field ever assembled for the Mondo or any Major at 32(ish) participants.
- 11th Hour Defections, Injuries, Apathy, and Trade-Ups we no match for TD resolve.
- An unprecedented (maybe) 4 Majors Rookies and 2 Majors newbies new to the Mondo are playing - that is 19% of the field completely in the dark on the format and the rules (and the other 81% only mostly in the dark). A new crop of backstabbing ingrates! The Serb pronounces: Let the Anti-Shapiro hazing begin!
- The Serb's knows nothing of any one um.
- STL is back in the fold, with new life and an unrecognizable handicap.
- Another old friend, MOB, rejoins the Mondo Mix.
- The Serb's boy, DOED is on the DL for the first time in his illustrious Majors career. Never heard of a doctor.
- We got something now called a Happner.
- Five out-of-town travelers are here (for the Mondo?) – not including those from Morton, Washington, East Peoria, and pert near Alta.
- TST is back to defend his Mondo crown and look for his record-breaking 7th Mondo Championship
- Royal Madison promises to sopping and perilously slow – like our four fathers would have wanted.
- This is Growth for the Mondo and the Majors like never before (The Serb is all about growing the game).
- For all of this, The Serb nods virtually imperceivably in the general direction of the TD.

The Serb knows this ain't much from The Serb. The Serb asks that you want more and demand more...just not right now. The Serb asks that if you do just one thing, please consult with your financial advisor and buy some SerbX. It is for a good cause..The Serb's fat wally.
