

2025 Mondo at Royal Madison – Preview

Back by Popular Demand...

Sure, it came about through a consummate lack of attention to detail, the poorest of the poorest communications, and sheer and utter incompetence on the part of we all know who...but dad-gum-mit, the peeps just loved it! The Serb cannot tell you how many raving reviews The Serb received for the short and sweet (like the Mondo) 2024 preview and predilection. A bit of a happy accident (also like the Mondo).

In 2025, The Serb is here to give The People what they want. The Serb is The Serb of The People!

The Serb's Tale:

It is not without significant minutes and seconds of deep ponderous thought, that The Serb carefully considers one deserving schmo over another seemingly deserving schmo in The Serb's order of prognostication. Painstakingly comparing the mental makeup and physical prowess of participants side by side. Thinking of the stamina and obliviousness required to endure the Anti-Shapiro in real time. Who can handle it? Who can't? Who can even hit a good enough shot (that never happened) for it to matter? What about the athleticism required to run to the next tee box? Anybody out here got that? So many things for the Serb to consider. How about the saying "with age comes wisdom"? That really a thing? [Probably - The Serb is 92]. The Serb has the mind of a rabid mongoose – able to run the key angles and traplines that a normal mongoose may never even consider. The Serb always puts in the work!

Even though The Serb will parse The Serb's words and The Serb will be terse in this forum (per The People), all must know that The Serb takes no shortcuts. The Serb simply cares too much.

So with that...scan it and weep, LOSERS!

The Serb's Further Reflection:

If this TD managed the Yankees, he'd have been fired...twice...for the grotesque lack of respect shown to The Serb and to the Constituents of the Majors way back in 2024. The Serb never forgets.

PW POTM strikes again!
