

Hoo Hoo Shoot 2017 Flashback

---

It Happened Here

- The field was split in pool play between Friday and Saturday. Something about EPY and LUF's schedule. Wanted to get to 16 and we did for the first time.
- Rained severely Friday and Saturday. Group of PVT, BT3, GNR and TST holed up for an hour and 45 minutes in Pine Lakes clubhouse. Then went out and immediately played four holes in a row in the driving rain. Shoulda waited another hour. A max 2-putt rule was instituted for the remainder of the day. On a soaked #8 green, TST made a 10-foot rooster-tailer par and PVT countered with a 6-footer for birdie win the hole.
- Resumption of the Saturday night at W's for italian beef and loads of desserts. The night was dominated by girls aged 3 to about 10? Genevieve was a house-proud and gracious host. Until the others started ticking her off. Commander McBragg entertained with her stories of the road. Meems proclaimed her preference for W clean shaven. Amongst other proclamations of wrong doing. CT and FT made their first ever appearance and were marginally entertained.
- Sunday's bracket play at The Country Club of Peoria was outstanding. Warm and dry and sunny. Nobody hit Mike Miller's house though many were worried about it.
- BT3 again ousted TST in the first round of bracket play. TST went 6-1 in his matches and finished 9th proving its not how many you win but which ones.
- Shlicksup was sighted mowing his yard.
- GNR, MOY and TST got to meet Stan's wife on number 11. A five minute conversation ensued and everyone agreed she was really very nice indeed.
- The record keeping of who had what to drink on the course was in a word, confusing. Stan meticulously figured it all out though. The record keeping of who had what to eat in the clubhouse was in a word, worse than confusing because the lady who was writing it all down left and didn't give to anybody.
- Apple donuts (unmicrowaved) and cider were allowed even at CCP. Leaving the Pock Faced Pervert from Pine Lakes as the only self described bigwig in 14 years to deny the tradition. MEL was offered the leftover donuts and he took them. DOED took the cider.

Monday, October 23, 2017

- The Cowboys lost to the Packers when they scored a go-ahead touchdown too early. Leaving Rodgers over a minute to bring the Packers back was yet another Jason Garrett clock management miscue witnessed by all the Hoo Hoo Shooters in the clubhouse.
- The after tournament cajoling and frolicking in the clubhouse got kind of loud and more than one wondered if it was too loud for a group of visitors.
- Repeat for W on HHS and MMAPC.