

EMF Sprint #3 – Preview

The Serb is not a fan. By that The Serb would like it to be know that The Serb is a fan. The Serb is a fan of the format. The Serb is a fan of those who risk life and limb to play in it. The Serb is a fan of the EMF Sprint, when the EMF possibilities have been exhausted. The Serb is not a fan when the EMF Sprint is choyso numero uno. What could have been a Rosewell Grey debut party is instead some random F1 race (great format..you know The Serb loves this format) thing in Litchfield fargin' Illinois at an unsanctioned and unknown course to the all the golf players and to the golf guys that keep of list of all the courses that golf players should play. Not in CDGA. Not in GHIN. Yet this dog track is a true test of golf for these golf players. Sheesh. The Serb says Sheese.

Anyway, The Serb is where The Serb is...

- Great farging format.
- Unknown track – for dogs or not – will prove dangerous.
- STL has missed two years, but chose Sprint for his comeback (the only redeeming quality of the Sprint in this case).
- BT3 and ERN are the only two returning winners (2 of 2).
- The ERN and DOED team are already in trouble - DOED WD for some bogus injury spares each of them the embarrassment that The Serb is sure would have come. DOED: One hole in EMF-S #1, Lame DNS in EMF-S #2, could EMF-S #3 do anything but disappoint?
- ERN has before and can again win the Individual Championship.
- YCC chickened out after his near fatal crash on 16 at Twin Warriors in NM.
- BT3 and STL will not defend their two straight team titles – victims of a random high low card draw. [NOTE: The Serb learned that spades are higher than hearts. The Serb surmises: more important to dig someone's grave than to love them – but both are better than showering them with jewels or hitting them over the head. The Serb is STSH.]
- TST and TBK are cheap asses. The Serb believes the grid penalty is not enough.

Here's what The Serb remembers from EMF-S #1 and #2 ...

- BT3 lives on the pole.
- Eight competitors is the number.
- There are four teams.
- Crash and Burn is a thing as are penalties.
- The rules are unchanged. The Serb abides.

The Serb's Analysis:

The Serb is not sure yet how it all works. Seems those that play the best win. You must finish, which seems appropriate. Coming down the stretch, position over score is delightful but hard to remember and profusely difficult to coagulate.

The Serb's Predictions:

This Event is entertaining and full of joy, pain, and wont. Set aside the confusionality and the whatjusthappenededness of it all. In the end anybody can win. And anybody can crash and burn. Avoiding penalties and making it to the finish line are the key. The Serb thinks No Duh, but then The Serb considers The Serbs throng of followers. Simply, here is what The Serb thinks will happen:

Indy's: Injured (DNS): DOED
 Retired (DNF): ERN, BT3
 Finishers (non-crashers): STL, TST
 On the Podes: TBK (1) LUF (2), MSG (3)

EMF Sprint - 3

Timber Lakes

White Tees

Player	Index	Course Handicap	Index Starting Position	Grid Penalty	Actual Starting Position	Starting Grid Points
BT3	7.1	6	1		1	1.0
LUF	9.0	8	2		2	0.9
ERN	9.8	9	3		3	0.8
STL	10.0	9	4		4	0.7
DOED	10.7	10	5		5	0.6
MSG	16.2	16	8		6	0.5
* TBK	12.5	12	6	+1	7	0.4
* TST	14.5	14	7	+1	8	0.3

*grid penalty for failure to maintain a USGA sanctioned index.

EMF Sprint Individual Winner #3: TBK (The unrelenting Serb)

EMF Sprint Team Winner #3: LUF / MSG