

ANA NEGRELLO is a singer from Rio Grande do Sul, graduated in music from UFSM-Santa Maria and has been living in Florianópolis for 10 years. Her full name- Ana Elisa Piltz Negrello - Capricorn born on 12/26/1972.

From a very young age, he participated in music festivals in several cities in his native state (RS).

His hometown (Erval Seco-RS) is located in the northwest region of the state and is close to the border with Argentina.

As a child, he used to listen to "Castilian" radio stations, hence his taste for Latin American songs!

In Santa Maria, as a student, he participated in the UFSM Music Workshop coordinated by Professor Daniel Morales and from then on he began to perform in bars and nightclubs in the city in the 90s.

In her repertoire, MPB classics and a special taste for Latin music that set her apart from other bar singers.

He was part of musical groups for dances and carnival parties.

He came to Florianópolis in 2010 and from then on he began to sing at night, accompanying himself on the guitar, in duos, trios and band.

Because she is very identified with Latin music and has a special admiration for the biggest name in LATIN AMERICA - Mercedes Sosa, Ana Negrello decided to honor her by dedicating a show with the best and best known songs she recorded. After much research and choice of repertoire, in 2014, with the direction of Fabio Maus, the DVD - La Negra en Mi Voz- Ana Negrello sings Mercedes Sosa was recorded live in Florianópolis - SC. Check out more on your social media.

@ananegrellooficial
www.ananegrello.com.br