THE MUSIC. THE MUSICIANS.

Rooted in electric blues and powered by rock, Resurrection Blues Band draws on Chicago blues, Southern roots, and the rhythms of Louisiana. The band grew from Rodney Mills' return to music and reconnection with longtime musicians in Southwest Michigan. Its songs reflect hard roads, fresh starts, and the spirit behind the band's name.

THE BAND

RODNEY MILLS / VOCALS & GUITAR

The band's founder and frontman brings a background as the founding lead guitarist of Benton Harbor's Brother Orchid. After time away from the industry, he returned to guitar in Sun, Louisiana, and later joined The Undertakers in Michigan. His songwriting and guitar work connect rock energy with blues and Southern roots.

FRANK ROTONDO / BASS

Chicago-born Rotondo began his professional career with Paradoxx. His years performing in Arizona and on the Las Vegas Strip shaped a disciplined, driving style that anchors the band's groove.

BILLY CANTY / DRUMS & PERCUSSION

A session drummer with roots in Louisiana and Florida, Canty has taught drums since 1991. His Gulf Coast feel and dynamic playing bring New Orleans flavor to the rhythm section.
