

LIMITED WARRANTY

Olsen Technologies & Management, LLC

WARRANTY COVERAGE FOR OLSEN TECH HARDWARE PRODUCTS:

For twelve (12) months from the date of shipment, Olsen Technologies & Management, LLC ("Olsen Tech") warrants that the new Hardware Products ("Products"), such as, but not limited to, Integrated Power Backup (IPB), Over Voltage Protection Device (OVPD) systems and associated Installation Wiring, when delivered, properly installed, and used in accordance with Olsen Tech's instructions and specifications, will substantially conform to Olsen Tech's most current version of the published specifications for the Products in all material respects. As Olsen Tech's sole responsibility and Customer's exclusive remedy in the event of any material nonconformity, Olsen Tech, at its sole discretion, may repair or replace the Products with Renewed Equipment so that it is conforming. "Equipment" shall mean, collectively, the Hardware Products. "Renewed Equipment" may be New or Reconditioned Equipment or Equipment that has been modified or altered. Renewed Equipment shall carry a 90day subsequent limited warranty. This Warranty section does not apply to parts or equipment supplied by others. Typically, those parts carry their respective manufacturers warranty, if any.

OLSEN TECH STANDARD SERVICE AND WARRANTY:

In response to a service request, the Olsen Tech Service / Engineering Support team will as a first step often remotely test/diagnose the Equipment, Services provided or Installation work through available means such as a communications link, if available, or via telephone. Based on the results of such test/diagnosis, the Olsen Tech Service Engineer or Technician, may, at his/her sole discretion, authorize replacement of the existing Equipment under warranty or modify any Service provided. Should replacement of the existing Equipment be required, Olsen Tech shall ship Renewed Equipment to Customer at the earliest possible opportunity after authorization of replacement of the existing Equipment. If further on-site diagnostics is required, the Olsen Tech Services policy and rates (below) shall apply. Upon on site Services request, reasonable and customary expenses shall be reimbursed. Services may include, but are not limited to, Documentation in support of FAA projects. Please discuss this policy at the time of requested service and be advised rates change from time to time.

EXPERIMENTAL AIRCRAFT - SERVICES:

As is the nature and responsibilities of Experimental Aircraft construction and maintenance, Olsen Tech from time to time is employed to ASSIST the builder/owner in installations, wiring and troubleshooting on aircraft. Since the overall responsibility of the Aircraft Safety and compliance with FAA regulations is that of the builder/owner, Olsen Tech takes no responsibility beyond Workmanship and Quality, implied or otherwise, for this aspect of the project(s). It is ultimately the responsibility of the builder/owner to inspect, or have inspected, all aspects of the project to achieve any applicable FAA approvals or ongoing compliance to any specific regulations. Acceptance of agreed upon work will be accomplished at the end of provided work, or at break points, as projects can take long periods of time. Notification of an issue after acceptance shall invoke the Warranty Coverage for Services of six (6) months from completion, or eighteen (18) months from start of project Services, whichever is less.

MODIFICATIONS AND LIMITATIONS:

This warranty shall not cover any defects caused by misuse, static discharge, lightning, fire, water, windstorm, earthquake, or other acts of nature, theft, abuse, neglect, improper handling, others equipment, installation, repair, alteration or accident, or other causes not within the reasonable control of Olsen Tech such as Governmental Agencies. Modification, tampering with, improper maintenance, or repair by customer, or at customer's direction, unless specifically authorized by Olsen Tech, shall invalidate this Warranty. Project Services are normally managed via a mutually agreed upon Statement of Work (SoW) or Memorandum of Agreement (MoA, including email) and shall establish requirements therein.

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, OLSEN TECH MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE EQUIPMENT, THE DESIGN OR CONDITION OF THE EQUIPMENT, OR ANY RESULT PRODUCED BY USE OF THE EQUIPMENT. OLSEN TECH SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NO OLSEN TECH EMPLOYEE, AGENT, DEALER, DISTRIBUTOR OR RESELLER IS AUTHORIZED TO MAKE ANY MODIFICATION OR ADDITION TO THIS WARRANTY.
