

THOMAS STRENTZ

ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR
TATSOR™ GROUP

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Forty nine years of qualified experience as an agent, project leader, director, advisor and instructor providing consultation and training in unconventional, security and counter terrorism operations to various US military, US federal, state and local law enforcement and friendly foreign military/LE special operations units. Backed with extensive experience in the FBI, he has been involved in numerous terrorist situations world-wide. He utilizes his expertise for organizations and individuals who work and travel in high-risk areas; such as domestic and international air lines, law enforcement, government agencies and the military. A proven administrator, instructor, public speaker, consultant, author and training film producer, he has concentrated his academic and professional efforts instructing persons in the physical and psychological tactics needed to survive hostage situations. He designed, developed and directed the FBI hostage negotiations program, was on loan to several countries to assist them in similar programs, helped create the FBI Hostage Rescue Team selection program and was a pioneer in psychological profiling of criminal and terrorist offenders. He developed and refined aircraft hijacker and terrorist profiles currently used internationally. He instructs in the POST accredited hostage negotiators course at San Jose State University in California and teaches similar material in Department of State Anti-terrorism courses here and overseas.

Overall responsible for developing and providing high-risk incident management advice/training to law enforcement, corrections and military professionals worldwide. Specializes in developing tailored assessment and selection programs, training programs and personnel and organization validation programs for agencies and units on the local, state and federal law enforcement levels as well as within US and friendly foreign military special operations units (2003-currently).
