2022 YEAR IN REVIEW

Strategic Highlights

We have reorganized and refocused the Foundation, bringing everything up to speed and compliance. We are consistently pushing forward to become fully functioning.

Financial Highlights

With the restart in 2022, we have obtained our banking and have applied for grants.

Operating Highlights

We laid the groundwork in a few cities, and with USABMX, to bring BMX racing back to the Bay Area. We have set up the following Board of Directors to assist with our future:

President Jeff Sereni

Secretary/Treasurer Marisa Sereni

Board Member Derek Brown

Vice President Nick Valencia

Board Member Joey Bixler

Board Member James Pond

We have set up various social media pages to help keep communications flowing:

Instagram: @foundation_4_a_better_ride

LinkedIn: Foundation 4 a Better Ride

Aggressive Patience, stay urgent in your actions, be patient and understand it's going to take time...Andy Frisella

Looking Ahead

We have secured our first location in Morgan Hill, and still have several leads on the table. We are expanding our network and looking at growth.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

Financially, we are at the beginning. We are currently operating on an out-of-pocket budget. The Board of Directors internally manage all startup costs.

- Lawyer Fees (for council and filings)
- Web site www.F4BR.org
- Business license
- Operating expenses

We have applied for several grants, which hopefully will kick off our 2023 campaign.
