CONFIDENTIALITY: Contents of all therapy sessions are considered to be confidential. Both verbal information and written records about a client cannot be shared with another party without the written consent of the client or the client's legal guardian. Noted exceptions are as follows:

- Duty to Warn and Protect

When a client discloses intentions or a plan to harm another person, or when information is obtained from clients or from collateral sources that others may be at danger, the mental health professional is required to warn the intended victim and report this information to legal authorities. In cases in which the client discloses or implies a plan for suicide, the health care professional is required to notify legal authorities and make reasonable attempts to notify the family of the client.

- Abuse of Children and Vulnerable Adults

If a client states or suggests that he or she is abusing a child (or vulnerable adult) or has recently abused a child (or vulnerable adult), or a child (or vulnerable adult) is in danger of abuse, the mental health professional is required to report this information to the appropriate social service and/or legal authorities.

- Court Order

Mental Health Practitioners are required to provide information in response to court orders and subpoenas.

- Insurance Providers (when applicable)

Insurance companies and other third-party payers are given information that they request regarding services to clients. Information that may be requested includes, but is not limited to: types of service, dates/times of service, diagnosis, treatment plan, description of impairment, progress of therapy, case notes, and summaries. Only the minimum necessary information will be communicated to the carrier. By signing this contract you are consenting to a release of information about your case to your health plan. Your practitioner has no control or knowledge over what insurance companies do with the information or who has access to this information.

- Technology

Cell phone usage can be intercepted by third-parties. This form or communication is used to help you with services and with coordination of services outside of your scheduled session. Your mental health practitioner is not responsible for any interception by third parties during these calls. Similarly, confidentiality cannot be assured when using the internet and in un-encrypted email messages. Should Michael Perciful Counseling be contacted by you through the internet, this constitutes implied reciprocal use of electronic mail.

- Other Participants

Clients being seen in couple, family, and group work are obligated legally to respect the confidentiality of others. The practitioner will exercise discretion (but cannot promise absolute confidentiality) when disclosing private information to other participants in your treatment process. Secrets cannot be kept by the practitioner from others involved in your treatment therefore, clients under 18 cannot be assured of unconditional confidentiality from their parents. Parents or legal guardians of non-emancipated minor clients have the right to access the clients' records.

- Staff

A client of any clinician is considered a client of the agency. Your case may be discussed and reviewed by other clinicians and staff. All Michael Perciful Counseling staff are held to the strictest level of confidentiality standards.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to the stated policies regarding confidentiality. _____ Initials

CANCELLATION POLICY:

If you fail to cancel a scheduled appointment, we cannot use this time for another client and you will be billed for the entire cost of your missed appointment. A full session fee is charged for missed appointments or cancellations with less than a 24-hour notice unless it is due to illness or an emergency. A bill will be mailed directly to all clients who do not show up for or cancel an appointment.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to the stated policies regarding cancellation. _____ Initials

EMERGENCIES:

If known ahead of time, you must discuss any expectations you have for emergency treatment with your therapist and agree to develop and follow a step-by-step crisis plan. You may telephone your practitioner in an emergency. Your practitioner is not always immediately available by phone and may not be available in the late evening. If unavailable, your call will be returned as soon as possible. If your practitioner is unavailable, or if your crisis needs immediate attention, please proceed to the nearest hospital emergency room or call Netcare at (614) 276-2273; the Suicide Prevention Hotline at 1-800-Suicide (1-800-784-2433), or 911.

Our general philosophy regarding emergencies is that clients are assumed to be self-responsible (i.e. autonomous, functioning, not in need of day to day supervision). In addition, as private practice clinicians we cannot assume responsibility for client's day to day functioning as can institutions nor can we be available for 24-hour per day crisis care.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to the stated policies regarding emergencies. _____ Initials

PRACTITIONER FEES:

Payment for service is made at each session at the agreed upon fee determined by practitioner and client. If utilizing your health insurance, fees will be determined by the practitioner's contracted rate with the insurance company and co-pays will be collected at each session.

- Individual Sessions $175.00 per session
- Couple or Family Sessions $175.00 per session
- Group Sessions $ 80.00 per group session
- Appointments not cancelled with 24 hour notice or Missed Appointments $175.00 per session or what has been determined between you and the practitioner.
- An additional 5% charge will apply to all credit card transactions

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to the stated policies regarding practitioner fees. _____ Initials

I have read this informed consent completely and have raised any questions I might have about it with my practitioner. I have received full and satisfactory response and agree to comply with all items freely and without reservations.

Notice of Privacy Practices
HIPAA

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

Your health record contains personal information about you and your health. This information about you that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services is referred to Protected Health Information ("PHI"). This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your PHI in accordance with applicable law. It also describes your rights regarding how you may gain access to and control your PHI. We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of PHI and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy and security practices with respect to PHI. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any new Notice of Privacy Practices will be effective for all PHI that we maintain at that time. We will provide you with a copy of the revised Notice of Privacy Practices by posting a copy on our website or in our office or by sending a copy to you in the mail upon request.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

For Treatment. Your PHI may be used and disclosed by those who are involved in your care for the purpose of providing, coordinating, or managing your health care treatment and related services. This includes consultation with clinical supervisors or other treatment team members. We may discuss your situation and/or disclose PHI to any other consultant only with your consent, such as your primary care physician. An "authorization" is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances when we are asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment and healthcare operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. We will also need to obtain a written authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. "Psychotherapy notes" are notes we have made about our conversation during a private, group, joint, or family counseling session, which we have kept separate from the rest of your medical record. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) we have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and the law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy. Note, psychotherapy notes may not be required to be released for eligibility or underwriting purposes.

For Payment. We may use and disclose PHI so that we can receive payment for the treatment services provided to you. This will only be done with your consent. Examples of payment-related activities are: making a determination of eligibility of coverage for insurance benefits, processing claims with your insurance company, reviewing services provided to you to determine medical necessity, or undertaking utilization review activities. If it becomes necessary to use collection processes due to lack of payment for services, we will only disclose the minimum amount of PHI necessary for purposes of collection.

For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support our business activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may share your PHI with third parties that perform various business activities (e.g., billing or typing services or our lawyer) provided we have a written contract with the business that requires it to safeguard the privacy of your PHI or we have otherwise obtained your consent to release the information. For training and teaching purposes PHI will be disclosed only with your consent.

Required by Law. Under the law, we must make disclosures of your PHI to you upon your request. In addition, we must make disclosures to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for the purpose of investigating or determining our compliance with the requirements of the Privacy and/or Security Rule.

Without Authorization. Applicable law and ethical standards permit me to disclose information about you without your authorization or consent only in a limited number of other situations. The types of uses and disclosures that may be made without your authorization are those that are:

- Required or allowed by law, such as (including but are not necessarily limited to): the reporting of child abuse or neglect or mandatory government agency audits or investigations (such as the social work licensing board or the health department), or abuse involving the elderly or the developmentally disabled/mentally retarded.
- If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about your evaluation, diagnosis and treatment and the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law and we will not release this information without written authorization from you or your personal or legally-appointed representative, or upon receipt of a court order. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party and you have provided an authorization to release the information to the third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.
- Necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. If information is disclosed to prevent or lessen a serious threat it will be disclosed to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat, or to other persons as permitted by law, including you.
- To defend against an action filed by you against us.

Verbal Permission. We may use or disclose your information to family members that are directly involved in your treatment with your verbal permission.

With Authorization. Uses and disclosures not specifically permitted by applicable law will be made only with your written authorization, which may be revoked, unless we have already relied on it.

Your Rights Regarding Your PHI

You have the following rights regarding PHI we maintain about you. To exercise any of these rights, please submit your request in writing to Michael Perciful Counseling, 509 S Otterbein Ave Suite 3, Westerville, Ohio 43081.

- Right of Access to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy PHI that are part of treatment records that we have created.
- Right to Amend. If you feel that the PHI we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information although we are not required to agree to the amendment.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an accounting of certain of the disclosures that we make of your PHI. We may charge you a reasonable fee if you request more than one accounting in any 12-month period. We are not required to report disclosures made for treatment, payment, or health care operations unless they involve electronic records.
- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to your request.
- Right to Request Confidential Communication. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location.
- Right to a Copy of this Notice. You have a right to a copy of this notice.

Complaints

If you believe we have violated your privacy rights, you have the right to file a complaint in writing with Michael Perciful Counseling, 509 S Otterbein Ave Suite 3, Westerville, Ohio 43081. You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The person listed above can provide you with the appropriate address upon request.

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
