PRAYING THE P R O M I S E
for Someone Who Feels Forgotten

Father,

Today I lift up every person who feels unseen, overlooked, forgotten, or alone. For those who wonder if anyone notices their pain, their prayers, or their struggles, remind them that they are fully known and deeply loved by You.

Lord, when loneliness settles into their hearts and discouragement whispers that they have been abandoned, silence those lies with the truth of Your Word. Remind them that You are the God who sees, the God who knows, and the God who never forgets His children.

Father, draw near to those who feel left behind while others seem to move ahead. Let them know that their value is not determined by recognition, approval, or the attention of others. Their identity is found in You alone. You have called them by name, chosen them, and loved them with an everlasting love.

I pray that You would surround them with Your presence and fill every empty place with Your comfort. Renew their hope, strengthen their faith, and remind them that even in seasons of waiting, You are working behind the scenes for their good.

Thank You that not a single tear falls unnoticed and not a single prayer goes unheard. You have not forgotten them. You are with them, You are for them, and Your plans for their lives remain secure in Your hands.

May they rest in the confidence that they are seen, known, love and remembered by the King of Kings.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

“The Lord Himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you.”
