PRAYING THE PROMISE
for Wisdom

Father,

I come before You today acknowledging that I do not have all the answers, but You do. Thank You for being a God who invites me to seek Your wisdom and promises to guide those who ask.

Lord, in every decision before me, help me discern Your voice above every other voice. Give me wisdom that is pure, peaceable, gentle, and full of good fruit. Protect me from leaning on my own understanding and teach me to trust You with all my heart.

When I am uncertain, remind me that You are not the author of confusion. Illuminate my path and help me recognize the doors You are opening and the ones You are lovingly closing. Let Your Word be a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Grant me wisdom in my relationships, my responsibilities, my ministry, and every area of my life. May my choices honor You and reflect the character of Christ. Help me not only to know what is right but also to walk in obedience to what You reveal.

Thank You for generously giving wisdom to those who ask. I trust that You are guiding me even when I cannot yet see the full picture.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.”
