Hello Tayyub, I will not be proceeding with the order. I was very specific about my requirements. The samples sent did not reflect what I ordered. You told me you knew what scratch sleeves were. I explicitly said the scratch sleeves were intended for wearers to cover their hands. The sizing of the garments was off. The onesie was tight, similar to the one you initially sent me. The opening of the store has been delayed because we have been waiting for this order. Please process my refund today or I will escalate this to Alibaba.

With the ninja hoodie. Will bamboo/ cotton fabric have enough stretch? The sample I ordered was difficult to get on and off. Perhaps because it was all cotton and the GSM was too heavy, 440, from what I recall.
