Sarah Carroll: 5 Reasons Why your body needs CBD Everyday!

With Plant Medicine Advocate

CBD has been growing in popularity since the 2018 Farm Bill legalized hemp products. Advertisements for CBD and Hemp derived products are prolific. It is almost impossible to avoid seeing them on a daily basis. My clients frequently ask if CBD will make them high, if it is the same as THC, and why would they take CBD when they have access to “the good stuff” with their medical marijuana card. CBD and THC are first cousins that share some qualities, yet interact differently in our bodies. Scientists discovered our endocannabinoid system (ECS) in the 1990’s and the body of research subsequently exploded. The discovery of one benefit snowballed into another area, and so forth and so on—which is why I refer to Hemp as “The Mother Plant” in terms of plant medicine. With so many options available to consumers, how do you know what is best for your mind, body and soul?

In this interactive seminar Participants will: 1) Explore the differences between THC and CBD, as well as Marijuana and Hemp; 2) Appreciate the benefits of CBD for a wide variety of physical and mood disorders; 3) Sample a variety of CBD products delivery (if they choose); 4) Investigate the endocannabinoid system as it relates to disorders and symptoms in the lives of those they love; 5) Understand what to look for when purchasing CBD and why quality matters; 6) Be provided a safe space in which to ask embarrassing questions; 7) Articulate the top 5 reasons why everyone should take CBD every day.

Dr. Sarah, a retired Professor of Education, lives with her husband on a small farm in the country with their feline daughters, Sappho, Penelope and GG. Together, they enjoy long walks, bike rides, gardening and family time. Come and hear how her mood, mindset, and overall health have been improved with consistent use of quality CBD.

James Hafer - "Your Spirit Guides: The Gateway to a New World"

Have you ever thought about life after physical death? Can you engage the thought that you have a guardian angel/guide that helps you with your physical life? How would you like to explore and discuss ways to get in closer contact with your spirit guide?

In this presentation we will explore and discuss life after so called death. There is no death, only a transition to a new world, the spirit world. Your guides are alive, vibrant beings just as you are. They are eager for you to get to know & interact with them. Welcome to the gateway leading you to a new world, the spirit world.

James discovered Spiritualism in the early 1980's, when his journey led him to the renown spiritualist community, Camp Chesterfield. After walking through the gates of Camp Chesterfield, his life was never the same. It was at that point that spirit truly became a reality in his life. James began taking classes at Chesterfield Spiritualist College (CSC) in the early 1980's. He also began his journey with mediumship & attended development classes. Little did he realize at that time, that he would become a resident teacher at the CSC, a certified development teacher, an astrologer, a gifted clairvoyant medium, and an ordained spiritualist minister.

Additionally, he has had the opportunity to study mediumship throughout the years with outstanding clairvoyant, trance, and physical mediums at Camp Chesterfield, as well as in Europe at the notable De Zwanenhof. It is his passion to connect the spirit world with the physical world with his evidential mediumship. His journey has led him to demonstrate his mediumship throughout the US.

It is a privilege for James to work with spirit and to aid others in becoming aware & conscious of their own inherent true nature.

Recognizing, understanding the spirit world, and how spirit works in everyone's life is also vital to James' work.

Professionally, James holds a master's degree in Nursing, and is a nurse practitioner at a local medical center in Indianapolis, IN. He and his husband Jeremy, reside in Indianapolis with their 2 dogs Macie Grey and Shiloh.
