Iggy Garcia - “Urban Shamanism”

Hello, I’m Ignacio, but you can call me Iggy. I’m proud to be a native of Peru, South America, and deeply connected to the sacred traditions of Peruvian Shamanism. I walk the Red Road with The Condor Eagle Society and The Native American Church of Nemenhah, holding roles as a Peruvian Shaman, Medicine Man, Minister, Chief, and Elder. My journey has led me to serve as a spiritual leader in my community in Columbus, Ohio.

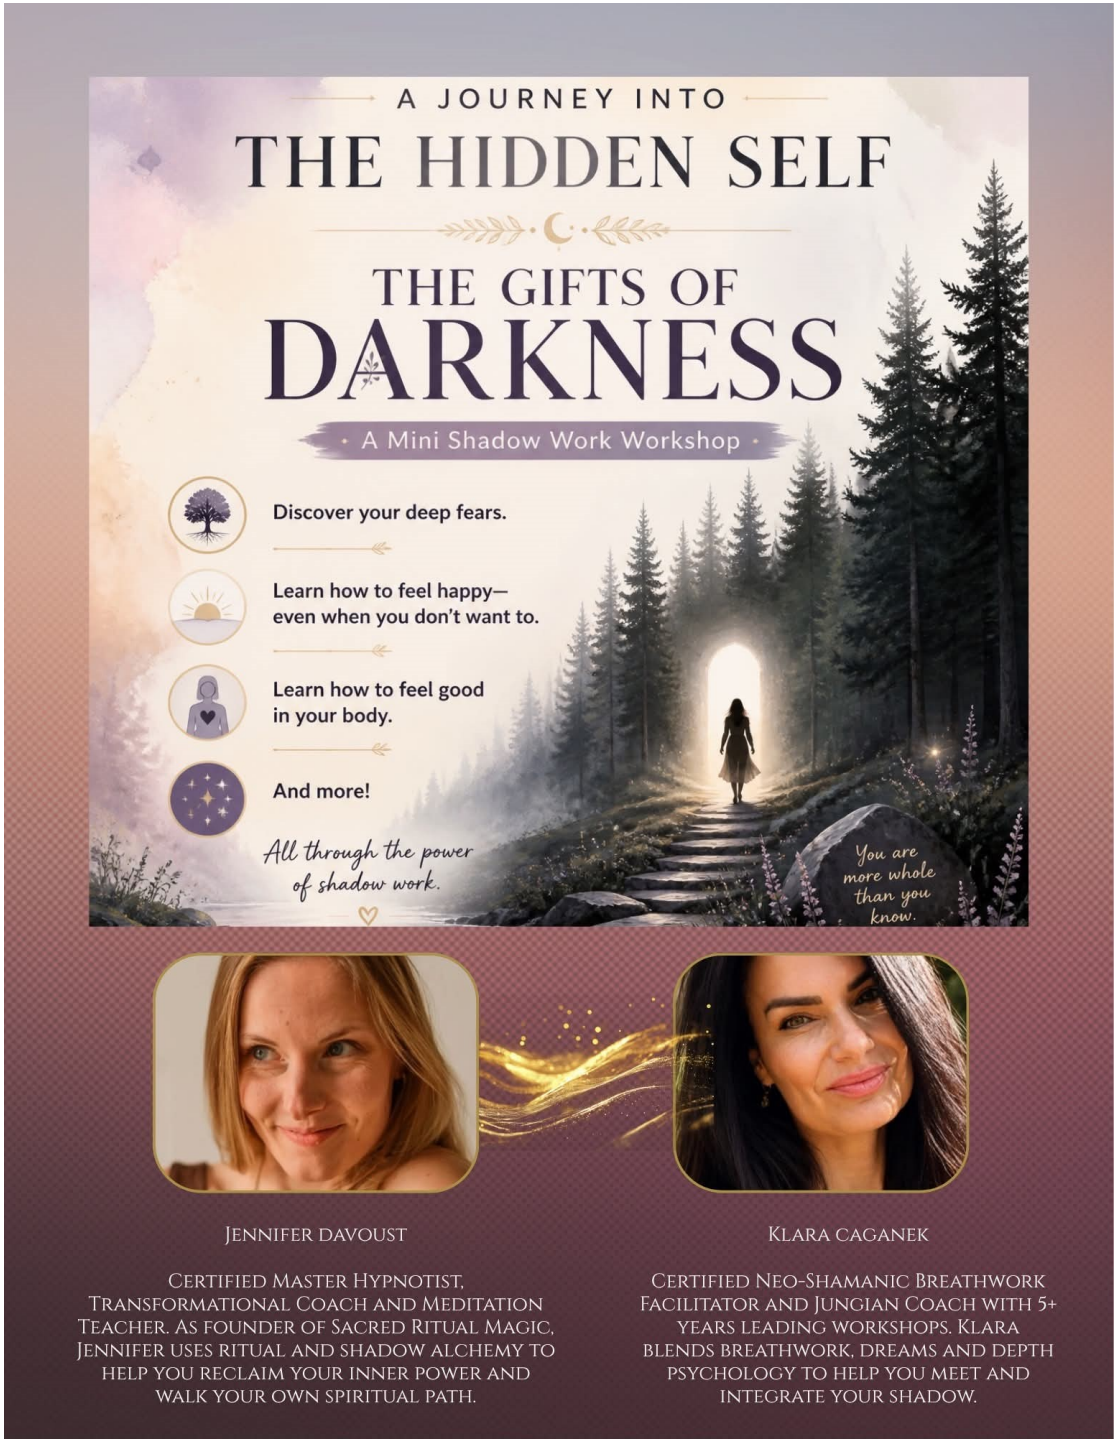

Beyond my spiritual path, I am a published author, speaker, blog writer, entrepreneur, and radio host. For more than 20 years, I have been the editor and producer of www.withinsightsradio.com, hosting a weekly podcast that explores holistic living, spirituality, and personal growth.

As Chief of Public Relations for The Condor Eagle Society and a Holistic and Metaphysical Practitioner, I am deeply engaged in numerous healing modalities. I am also a certified Shahaptian Guide Medicine Man through the Nemenhah Indigenous Traditional Organization (NAC). This certification authorizes me to perform sacred ordinances using plants, animals, stones, feathers, and other elements in ceremonies aligned with the Shahaptian Healing Way, as outlined in the Nemenhah Constitution and restored by Wyakin. My heart and work are closely tied to The Condor Eagle Chapter House in Columbus, Ohio.

My expertise spans various practices, including intuitive mentoring, drum healing, drum circles, remote healing, body energy work, Inca meditation, and open chair Gestalt therapy. I also hold the title of Chief of Tiwehkthihmpt of Itsipi Society within the Great Lakes region.

Through my work, I strive to empower individuals to unlock their healing potential. I believe that healing begins with self-awareness and understanding the power we hold within ourselves. Past traumas can weigh us down, but by embracing the present moment as a gift from our Creator, we can move forward and live fulfilling lives. Every person has something valuable to offer the world and the universe.

“Gift of Shadow Work”

This will be a mini shadow work workshop, where we’ll explore the concept of the shadow through the lens of Jungian psychology and self-discovery. We’ll look at how our hidden fears, suppressed emotions, and disowned desires can influence our lives and how bringing awareness to these parts of ourselves can open the door to greater freedom, self-acceptance, and vitality. we’ll also explore how to turn toward the parts of ourselves we often resist, discover what they might be trying to tell us, and recognize the gifts that can emerge when we embrace more of who we are.

Mary Graham - "If You Want to Get to Heaven, Get Human"

What if the spiritual journey isn't about escaping our humanity, but embracing it? Join Mary Graham, creator of Luminyria™, as she explores the difference between becoming and remembering, why so many people feel disconnected from who they truly are, and how embracing our humanity may be the key to remembering who we came here to be. What if the path isn't about becoming someone else? What if it's about remembering who you came here to be? Mary will also share how these ideas inspired the creation of the Luminyria™ Soul Blueprint experience. This inspiring presentation offers a fresh perspective on meaning, purpose, and the sacredness hidden within everyday life. BIO: Mary Graham is a psychic empath, channeler, spiritual teacher, speaker, and creator of the Luminyria™ Code. Sri Selva - “Release & Rise”

Clearing Trauma and Karmic Ties When was the last time you felt truly light? Free of the old hurts, the heavy patterns, and the ties that keep pulling you back? In my work as an energy practitioner, I’ve seen how past emotional and physical trauma gets stored in the energetic body as lower-vibrational karmic ties. It quietly shapes how we think, feel, and move through life. In this session, I’ll show you how that stagnant energy builds up, and I’ll guide you through practical ways to transmute dense mental and physical blockages using Higher Consciousness and the Violet Flame. You’ll also see how I use sacred tools to deepen the process: a copper pyramid, crystal frequencies, and a vibroacoustic sound table that brings the body into deep relaxation and supports cellular repair. Together, we’ll go through the Phyllis Krystal Method to cut stagnant attachments and clear subconscious conditioning, so you leave feeling real emotional freedom. You don’t need any experience, and there’s nothing to get right. Just come as you are and let yourself let go. As my thank-you for showing up for yourself, everyone who attends gets a free Inner Light Meditation. It’s a powerful practice that calms an unsettled mind and tunes you into your inner light, which is the true source of your guidance.

Her work invites people to question the stories they have inherited, reconnect with their own inner wisdom, and remember that transformation isn’t about becoming someone new—it’s about remembering who you already are. The Resiliency of the Human Spirit: Question Everything. Trust Yourself.

Cinnamon Mancini - “The World of Mediumship”

Cinnamon Mancini is an International Spiritual Medium, Psychic Counselor, and Teacher for the Intuitive Arts. In this presentation, Cinnamon introduces the world of mediumship, starting with the key difference between a psychic and a medium. A psychic reads energy in the present, while a medium journeys into the spirit world, connecting with loved ones who have passed, delivering messages of love, healing, and continuity of life.

Cinnamon also explores how mediums dip into spirit’s well of wisdom, tapping into guidance beyond ourselves for help, direction, and clarity with life’s challenges, from relationships to purpose to major decisions. The presentation includes a live demonstration of spirit communication, connecting in real time with the spirit world, offering audience members the chance to experience an authentic reading firsthand.

Cinnamon closes with an open question and answer session, inviting anyone on their own spiritual journey to ask about mediumship, the afterlife, and deepening their connection to spirit. Whether curious, grieving, or seeking guidance, this presentation offers a warm, evidential introduction to mediumship.

Tommy Arnold - "How Spirit Speaks: Evidential Mediumship + Live Messages"

In this session I explain how loved ones in spirit communicate (the signs, the symbols, and how to recognize them in your own life), then close with a short live demonstration of messages for audience members. Two quick questions: 1. Do speakers also need to reserve a booth, or can I present on my own? 2. How long are the seminar slots, and are any still open for this show? You can see my press kit and videos of my work at TommyArnold.com/book-tommy.

Christina Hurt - “Hear Yourself Again” - A Guided Journaling Experience

When was the last time you gave yourself the time to listen to your own thoughts? Not to solve anything. Not to figure something out. Just to hear what wants to be expressed. No writing experience is needed. You won't be asked to share what you've written, and there's nothing to “get right.” It’s simply you giving yourself full permission in this gentle, guided experience. Come join us for a little quiet to hear yourself again. Christina Hurt is a retreat facilitator and author of eight books who has been gathering people together to write since 2013. After guiding hundreds of aspiring authors and journalers, Christina has come to believe that writing doesn't have to be about publishing a book, improving yourself, or producing something meaningful. Sometimes, it's simply about having a place to hear yourself think. Through Sanctuary Writing, Christina creates protected spaces where people can explore their interior lives through the simple practice of putting pen to paper—with full permission to write without judgment or expectation.

Dr. Ryan C. Brown - "Remember Who You Are"

Living Life from the Inside Out What if the person you've spent your entire life trying to become is actually someone you've simply forgotten? Join metaphysicist Dr. Ryan C. Brown for an inspiring and thought-provoking exploration of what it means to remember who you really are—before the world told you who to be. From an early age, we inherit beliefs, expectations, labels, and ideas about who we are and who we're supposed to become. Eventually, we can become so identified with those stories that we forget something incredibly important: We have a choice. Through relatable stories, metaphysical principles, and his signature Freedom Loop™, Ryan explores how we can stop allowing the outside world to define our inner state and begin living life from the inside out. You are not your past. You are not your circumstances. And you are not every thought that passes through your mind. Maybe awakening isn't about becoming someone new. Maybe it's simply remembering who you've been all along.

Michelle Leonhardt - Aligning to the Life You Want

Drawing from her experience with sound healing, light therapy, and working with the energy of crystals, Michelle Leonhardt has spent years exploring the connection between our inner world and the reality we experience. Her journey took a deeply personal turn when a diagnosis of lymphoma prompted her to reevaluate what truly mattered in her life and what it meant to live with greater intention and purpose. In this thought-provoking presentation, Michelle invites you to look beyond what you believe is possible and explore how deeply rooted beliefs, expectations, and automatic responses may be quietly shaping your experiences and limiting the opportunities you recognize. Often, the greatest obstacles to creating the life we want are the patterns we don't even realize we're following. Discover how greater awareness of these patterns can open the door to new possibilities and help you begin consciously aligning your thoughts, choices, and actions with the life, relationships, and experiences you truly desire.

Debbie Keri-Brown (Lorelei), Intuitive Oracle Card Reader

“Synchronicity And Divine Intervention”

It's not a coincidence that you're reading this. Synchronicities are winks from the cosmos. They can be a singular event that sparks a chain reaction in our lives. Many people call them "coincidences" but in fact, there are no coincidences because everything happens for a reason. They can guide or warn us, affirm a truth or capture our attention.

Debbie Keri-Brown, known as "the synchronicity lady", will share her personal stories of crackers that showed up in time to feed the homeless, the brooch that did not sell because it was destined to be reunited with a family member, money that appeared in a purse to pay a bill, the angel wings that appeared on a window to offer comfort in a pending danger and more heartwarming stories.
You'll learn how to recognize the signs, see how they're all around you and how to bring more synchronicities into your life by being in the flow! There will also be time for you to share your own stories.
Debbie Keri-Brown is a motivational speaker on 15 spiritual and esoteric topics, Reiki Master, nondenominational minister, intuitive oracle card reader, published author and an antique dealer. Stop by her booth at the Gift Of Light Expo this weekend! She speaks at expos and events throughout the area in her lively and compassionate style with her authentic NYC accent. She is the recipient of several community service awards including the Spirituality Award From Purpose For Women.

THE CENTER FOR NEW LIFE

Ammatara Noel - Somatic Healing & Energetic Hygiene: So often we carry unresolved experiences in our bodies — tension, anxiety, or heaviness that lingers long after the moment has passed. In this experiential talk, Ammatara will guide you to tune into your body as you bring to mind something unresolved, and then gently release what is ready to be let go. You'll also learn practical tools to keep your nervous system calm, your energy field clear, and your spirit grounded in daily life. Together we will explore how every situation in life is happening for you, not to you — as part of your soul's evolution. This session closes with a collective healing, leaving you lighter, clearer, and reconnected to the truth that the answer is always more love.

Sunday - "Healing Your Ancestral & Genetic Lineage" Fulfilling Your Purpose as a Soul Warrior/Lightworker Through Awareness, Energetic Release, and Soul Embodiment Many lightworkers and soul warriors carry a deep inner knowing that they came here for a purpose that extends beyond their own life. One of the most profound aspects of that mission is the healing of the ancestral and genetic lineage. For many awakened souls, the family of origin is almost never the soul family. Instead, we often incarnate into lineages that hold unresolved wounds, patterns, and distortions that our souls agreed to help transform. In this presentation, we will explore why so many lightworkers and soul warriors are placed within challenging family systems and how this connects to the larger purpose of lineage healing. We will discuss how trauma, beliefs, emotional patterns, and energetic imprints can travel through the genetic and ancestral lines—moving both backward and forward in time. You will learn how your soul may be working not only to heal yourself, but also to release and transform patterns carried by generations before you while simultaneously changing what is passed forward to future generations. During this presentation, I will explain: • Why many lightworkers incarnate into non-soul-family systems • How ancestral and genetic patterns are carried energetically and biologically • The role of the soul warrior in transforming lineage patterns • How healing work can move both backward and forward through time • Ways to consciously participate in your lineage healing mission We will also move beyond discussion into direct experience. Together, we will participate in a guided energetic release and healing process designed to help clear ancestral burdens, release inherited energetic patterns, and restore alignment within yourself and your lineage field. This experience is intended to support participants in stepping more fully into their soul purpose while bringing healing not only to themselves, but to the generations that came before and the generations yet to come.

Neil Callender - "Super Conscious Transformation" Presented by Neil Intuitive Restructuring is a multidimensional healing modality I received from spirit in 2024. I have used it to great effect in addressing family conflicts, addiction, self-harm issues, long Covid, depression, pain and anxiety, and many other issues. Intuitive Restructuring continues expanding, now dealing with the disequilibrium between yin energy and yang energy as a fundamental issue causing imbalance and suffering.

Denise Amato - '"Beneath the Surface"

I am trained in Biodynamic Craniosacral Therapy, a gentle and deeply restorative healing practice rooted in the understanding that the body carries an innate wisdom and an inherent movement toward balance and wholeness. I approach this work as a sacred practice of listening—listening not only to the physical body, but also to the subtle rhythms, stillness, and deeper intelligence that live within each of us. Through gentle, supportive touch and compassionate presence, I create a nurturing space where the body and nervous system are invited to soften, settle, and reconnect with their natural rhythms. Rather than trying to fix or force change, Biodynamic Craniosacral Therapy honors the wisdom of the whole person—body, mind, heart, and spirit. In the quiet of a session, there can be an opportunity to release what is ready to be released, reconnect with a deeper sense of self, and experience greater spaciousness, grounding, and inner peace. I believe healing often begins when we feel safe enough to slow down and listen within. My intention is to hold a compassionate and peaceful space where each person can reconnect with their own inner resources, vitality, and inherent wholeness.

Deborah Holcomb - "THE SHIFT"(TM) is the answer to offsetting the brutal EMF exposures we are now constantly experiencing. Dr. Kate Keville has worked to develop a 'Bigger Boat' by utilizing Nicola Tesla's contribution to science. This device holds a continuous and constant output at 35 to 40 mili-tesla units. This is the perfect balance for the human body and has proven effective in minutes to influence your electromagnetic field. In over 250 individuals the red blood cells where seen dancing from a dark field microscope after 1 minute of use. Your body is then able to utilize more efficiently supplements, hydration, food, and increase the effectiveness of other alternative health care techniques such as massage, acupuncture, acupressure, sound therapies, homeopathy and may more. The body is stimulated at a cellular level to execute what it was meant to actually do more easily, efficiently and naturally. As a homeopath Deborah recommends this product to help the remedies work with greater influence and assist the body in detoxification. We now need to constantly support the body to help to remove the massive amounts of microplastics, heavy metals, over 79,000 chemicals as well as many pathogens.
