

The mission of 413300R is:

To donate time to beautify our public space by collection and removal of human generated trash.

To educate about the benefits to communities when public spaces are free of trash.