

Scenario 2

You are in the car park after a very tight cup game which was won following a contested penalty.

As you approach your car you recognise the match official who appears to be of South Asian descent putting their kit into a vehicle about 10 meters away.

An individual getting into the car next to you shouts loudly to the official, gaining their attention “That was never a fing penalty...” followed by a racial slur.

