

Scenario 2.

You are in the car park after a very tight cup game which was won following a contested penalty.

As you approach your car you recognise the match official who appears to be of South Asian descent putting their kit into a vehicle about 10 meters away.

An individual is marching across the car park towards the official, shouting loudly: “That was never a f***ing penalty...” followed by a racial slur. They continue to approach the official, who appears visibly nervous.

