INTROIT

Psalm 105:1-5, 8; antiphon: 1 Peter 2:2-3

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up to salvation

if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;

make known his deeds among the peoples!

Sing to him, sing praises to him;

tell of all his wondrous works!

Glory in his holy name;

let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

Seek the LORD and his strength;

seek his presence continually!

Remember the wondrous works that he has done,

his miracles, and the judgments he uttered.

He remembers his covenant forever,

the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever.

Amen.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up to salvation

if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

In the Lord's Supper, the Risen Christ is at once the Giver and the Gift! By His promise His very Body and Blood are present; and thereby we come into the very presence of the exalted Christ! As we do so, witness is also given to the oneness in the profession of faith of those who receive the Sacrament together - and in this way we support and encourage one another in the struggle of giving faithful witness to our Christian faith and our trust in all of God's Word. For this reason, we practice close communion and invite all who profess the Christian faith that is confessed by Grace Lutheran Church (LC-MS) to commune with us. Helpful preparation is located on pages 329-330 of our hymnal (LSB). If you have any questions we ask that you speak with the pastor or one of the elders. Please note that children are welcome to come forward for a blessing. If not communing, please fold your arms.

PLEASE NOTE: Gluten free wafers are available on the altar (in a small clear plastic container - orange lid). Inform the elder of your desire to receive gluten free - you will have opportunity to reach into container for the wafer. ALSO NOTE: Alcohol-free fruit of the vine (grape juice) is available in the very center slot of the communion tray. Pastor will work to always have one cup available.
