

Consent Form

I understand that the service provided is not intended for crisis situations and urgent needs. In a crisis, I agree to call my local emergency services, or visit the nearest emergency room/department. Information shared with my coach is confidential except in the following circumstances: If I present as a danger to myself or others, mandated reporting of abuse of children, elders or infirmed, or if I sign a Release of Information (ROI).

Couple's Coaching Consent Form:

When you agree to participate in the couple's coaching, you also agree to share the medical record with each other. Therefore, you agree that if one of you signs a Release of Information (ROI), then the other party will not be able to hinder this. Meaning, I, Martha, only need one signature to release the information. I, Martha, do not need both of your signatures.

Teen Coaching Consent Form:

Martha does not coach teens 17 years and under. For coaching, you must be 18 years, minimum.

In the Event of Court:

I acknowledge that if I sign a Release of Information (ROI) for litigation purposes, the expiration date on the ROI will be applicable only to the release of the information itself. Meaning, I will release your information only within the time frame you tell me.

The ROI date does not apply to the date of your court hearing. This means that if you sign a ROI for litigation purposes, then I can explain your records content you have signed for me to release. If the trial/court is after the ROI's expiration date, your intent for your records to be released for litigation will allow me to discuss your records on the date of trial, since your purpose for releasing them would be for the trial. This portion of the consent is to ensure you do not run into any barriers on the day of litigation even if the ROI date has expired. I do not travel for court hearings outside of USA. Inside of the USA, there is no guarantee that I will present in person. However, if you would like for me to appear virtually or in person, there is a Court Fee that will be determined upon your request.

I, Martha, will send you the Client Packet via DocuSign once I receive the following: Your first name, last name, and desired email. The DocuSign will come from my work email: Renee@GoldenWingsCoaching.com

I understand that my electronic signature is a binding signature.
