

Ismael Aldana

Department: Former Boulder County sheriff's deputy assigned to undercover duty with the countywide drug task force

Accusation: Lied to his supervisors about travel. Detained at Chicago airport on April 12, 2014, with $70,000 while traveling with a person suspected of being a drug trafficker, according to his internal affairs file.

Aftermath: Resigned May 1, 2014, prior to discipline; became Mead's code enforcement and animal control officer

Current job: First officer hired by the Mead Police Department last March (2017)

Kevin Averill

Department: Former Boulder County sheriff's deputy

Accusation: Failed to appear as a witness in a trial. After working until 6 a.m., Averill drank a few beers and took a sleeping pill. When called by a prosecutor asking him to appear in court. Averill refused to drive or testify under the influence. The defendant was acquitted.

Aftermath: Fired on March 11, 2015

Current job: Provision agent at Southwest Airlines

Kelly Boden

Department: Current Boulder County sheriff's deputy

Accusation: Cited on June 30, 2015, and subsequently charged with failure to report child abuse, according to her Brady letter

Aftermath: Pleaded guilty to failure to report child abuse; received 24-month deferred sentence and 24 hours community service in January 2016. Case was dismissed in August after successful completion of the sentence, according to the Boulder County District Attorney's Office.

Current job: (Unknown)

Robert E Buswold

Department: Former Longmont police officer

Accusation: Information that may bear on his credibility following an internal investigation relating to a DUI arrest, in which he was the arresting officer, according to his Brady letter.

Aftermath: Unclear when he left the department, and whether he resigned or was fired

Current job: Realtor

associate with Keller Williams Preferred Realty in Westminster

11043 Josephine St Northglenn, CO 80233 (720) 955-0593 RBuswold@gmail.com

Shane Curtis
July 6, 2015

Shane Curtis

Department: Former Erie police officer

Accusation: Lied in a report, according to Chief Kim Stewart.

Aftermath: Resigned two days after the launch of an internal investigation, on Dec. 17, 2016, prior to that investigation's conclusion.

Current job: Unknown

Lanie Delong

Department: Former Boulder County sheriff's deputy

Accusation: Gave untruthful testimony in a case in which she was a witness in Weld County Court, unrelated to her duties as a deputy.

Aftermath: Fired; unclear when

Current job: Investigator at a private investigations and security company based in Berthoud

Jack Gardner

Department: Former Boulder police detective

Accusation: Tipped off a suspect who was being investigated for internet sexual exploitation of a child in September 2014. Gardner was convicted of being an accessory to a crime, obstructing a peace officer and misdemeanor first-degree official misconduct in September 2015. He was sentenced to three years of supervised probation.

Aftermath: Resigned in October 2014

Current job: Unknown

Cindy Lawley

Department: Former Longmont crime scene technician

Accusation: Integrity violation on Oct. 5, 2016, according to her Brady letter

Aftermath: Unclear when she left, and whether she resigned or was fired

Current job: Kremmling Police Department

Richard Mafera

Department: Current University of Colorado police officer

Accusation: Allegations that he was biased against a Middle Eastern student during a false bomb threat report in April 2015, along with posting potentially offensive religious, racial and ethnic remarks on his personal Facebook page.

Aftermath: Unclear if any

Current job: Still employed

Gene McCausey

Department: Former Louisville police commander

Accusation: Findings involving credibility, according to his Brady letter

Aftermath: Resigned April 7, 2017

Current job: Unknown

Ronald Perea

Department: Former Boulder police officer

Accusations: Failed to comply with department values, rules and general order; was untruthful in reports and statements while working in an official capacity; and used excessive force, according to an internal administrative investigation completed Dec. 13, 2016.

Aftermath: Resignation in lieu of termination, unknown date

Current job: Law enforcement tactics and firearms instructor, according to his LinkedIn profile

Ryan Wagner

Department: Former Boulder police officer

Accusation: Arrested on Oct. 2, 2014, and charged with three counts of felony stalking in Arapahoe County. Convicted on all three counts in February 2016 and sentenced to six years of probation and 90 days in jail for each count. An arrest warrant was issued in February 2017 for failure to comply with probation, according to the 18th Judicial District.

Aftermath: Resigned Oct. 2, 2014

Current job: Unknown

Wade Weese

Department: Former Longmont police officer

Accusation: Integrity violation on July 26, 2017, according to his Brady letter

Aftermath: Fired Aug. 3, 2017

Current job: Mead High School

Title

Campus Supervisor

Staff Department

Building Support