

Business Insight for the Top Line.

Continuous improvement for the Bottom Line.

When you're looking to optimize processes and gain efficiencies – whether back office or customer facing – Capgemini Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) Services will illuminate the way.

We improve top-line value in addition to providing traditional bottom-line cost-saving benefits by applying analytics and business intelligence tools to extract value from what is typically viewed as "just workflow". As a result, Capgemini delivers BPO with Business Insight that can shed new light on:

- The full scope of F&A from accounts payable and receivable, general accounting, planning and performance management, and compliance management.
- Optimizing business-critical operations for top-line value, such as concurrent audit, revenue recovery, ethical fraud testing
