

MISSIONS FOR HUMANITY
Waiver, Release and Indemnification

Volunteers are strongly encouraged to consult the State Department, Country Specific Information and Travel Alerts and Warnings at <http://travel.state.gov/travel/> and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) at <http://wwwn.cdc.gov/travel/> with regard to their destination country prior to signing this agreement.

Volunteer states that his/her participation with the mission of Missions for Humanity and any activity at home and abroad is wholly voluntary.

Volunteer states that s/he understands that certain risks are inherent in foreign and domestic travel and that s/he fully accepts those risks. These risks may include, but are not limited to, such things as war, quarantine, civil unrest, public health risks, criminal activity, terrorism, exposure to communicable diseases, ill effects of unfamiliar food and water, incidents related to ground, air or water transportation, adverse weather conditions, accident, injuries or damage to property, and other physical, mental, and emotional injury.

Volunteer states that s/he fully understands the above risks and the scope of the activities in which Missions for Humanity is involved and that s/he agrees to assume the risks of participation with Missions for Humanity, including the risk of catastrophic injury or death.

Volunteer states that, for and in consideration of acceptance by Missions for Humanity to participate in their activities both at home and abroad, Volunteer and his/her heirs, successors, assigns and personal representatives agree to indemnify, hold harmless, release and forever discharge Missions for Humanity, its Directors, employees, agents and cooperating institutions and their officers and agents from any and all claims and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, for any injury, loss, or damage to personal property, including catastrophic injury or death, related to any and all activities both home and abroad suffered by Volunteer (including those related to travel to and from Missions for Humanity destination sites.)

CHOICE OF LAW
