

Attention Chapters: Got talent? Win $1000 for the most entries submitted!

Music for the Cause is holding its 2nd Annual National Charity Songwriting Competition and we need your support!

Share our competition with your community and the Chapter with the most song entries from their area will get $1000 donation from MFTC!

It's free to enter for those with a bleeding disorder, carriers included... and a $25 entry fee per song for the general public!

All genres encouraged!

We are giving away $13,000 in prizes to our winners and songs will be judged by some of music's top industry professionals, including Chris Mann from NBC's The Voice!

Go to musicforthecause.org to learn more about our National Charity Songwriting Competition and let your community know about this incredible opportunity!

Feel free to reach out to us at: info@musicforthecause.org with any questions!

Thank you!
Warmest Regards

The Music for the Cause Team
