

SKYBRIDGE SMALL CAP FUND – APRIL 2021

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

Unit Price as at 30 April 2021 – 0.9988

In April-21 the fund was up 11.07% and the fund has returned -0.12% since inception after all fees and costs. We are pleased with this bounce and remain optimistic on the market recovery and our portfolio as we continue believe many of the companies that we own are in the early stages of an earnings upgrade cycle. We remain very bullish on the medium-term outlook for iron ore prices and hold diversified positions across equities and hold net cash for liquidity purposes. All of our stock holdings could be returned to cash within one trading day, highlighting the liquidity of our portfolio, something that would be the envy of many of our competitors. We have been continuing to field several enquiries from investors to wanting exposure to this fund but have continued to decline these applications as there is no capacity for further investment at the moment.
