

CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF 250

To all American citizens: Happy Fourth of July and Happy 250! It's a year of celebrating the United States. Unfortunately, most citizens know nothing of our origins. We did not start as a bunch of white rich guys who did nothing. Many of the rich actually lost their fortunes in bringing the Thirteen Colonies together as a country. For those of you who want to know the danger our country is in and want to read a book that educates you about the beginnings of the country and why we are in danger now, I'm offering a free book. If you can show me one atheist, just one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence— any of the 56 men— was an atheist— not a Jew, not a Christian or a Deist, but an atheist— I will send you a free copy of my book, "70 Years of American Captivity." The reason I can do that is because NOT ONE SINGLE SIGNER was an atheist. In Europe there were many. None of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. If you believe there is even one single man who was an atheist, you have been lied to. I prove in that book that the bulk were Christian; two Jews and possibly two to four Deists. Deists are not atheists. In fact, during that period of time Deists were quite religious.

It was a challenge to share the stories of sacrifice and diligence our WHITE, BLACK, MALE, FEMALE, NATIVE-AMERICAN INDIAN and EUROPEAN Americans took in birthing America. I need to rip open the blinders and lies our youth and hard-working Americans have bought into. Those lies tell them a bunch of white, rich old guys stole the country from the Native American Indigenous people. Yes, for sure we took land, bought land and entered into compacts and covenants for land. That process took place over 250 years, from approximately 1550 to 1800. In many cases it was violent and in other cases it was actually civilized. For the most part, the Indians fought on the side of our enemies. But in some cases, they worked with the colonists and fought along side them. What I would like to do with all the monthly articles on the site is share our Founding Documents and share the truth about socialism.

Socialism is communism, done by “paper-work” instead of guns. I would love for you to research how the average person lives in Russia and China. They are followed and for the most part, poor. In China they are monitored through their cell phones. Every single person has one and the citizens own nothing of their own. Sure, they pay for their housing, but the government tells them where they can live and what they can buy. They cannot go to church. In Russia the churches are less harassed. But in China they are persecuted. They can only go to the government-approved churches. You can say nothing about the government in China. All communistic countries control their citizens: ALL.

The Slippery Slope

We really don't realize the danger our country is in if we continue to elect these “socialists” to office. I want to show you how religious our founding mothers and fathers were. Most or all of them had a family Bible—once the country was settled. The reason family Bibles were not as plentiful in the beginning, is that there were no publishing systems set up in the country to print Bibles. In order for that to happen leaders—men of valor set up a system for that to happen—specifically, they set up a system to print Bibles. Most or all of the colonists from the thirteen colonies attended church weekly. Much of whether they could get to church had to do with how close they were to a church.

I want to prove to you from the documented history that it was Christianity and Judaism that set up our nation. In order to do that and to show the danger we are in, about fifteen years ago I started to do research that became a book. I had no idea how religious the colonists were. I started researching in about 2011 to 2012, and then finally published the first edition in 2016, and the final edition in 2017. That's why I want to get a copy of the book in your hands to read. Amazon has all three: digital, paperback and hardcover. Copy and then paste here: < <https://www.amazon.com/70-Years-American-Captivity-Government-ebook/dp/B01GW8A16Q> >. There are other book sellers also available, but if you can't afford the book, we have a limited number of paperbacks available. We are holding a contest of sorts to the first ten people who may be interested in learning about the founding of America.

All you have to do is email us why you want to learn about the founding of America, the places or people you have learned from (like school, the internet, church, synagogue, mosque, etc.) and give us your name, and address so we can send you a paperback copy. < rev@ccm4www.org > is our email address. Your reason can be as simple as the fact you wanted to read the book. We're not looking for an essay here. As I wrote before, we have a limited number of books. Let me share the process for writing during this 250 Celebration. It dawned on us that most folks have never read our Founding Documents. On this website on the Prayer Lesson Tab, we will type out the Bill of Rights—the original, first ten. Then here on the Feature Article Tab, the Declaration of Independence. Finally, on the Intercession Tab, where we normally place the prayer requests, we will type out the Constitution. We will also place a Feature Article from previous years, or copy a chapter from the book so you can read scientifically why socialism is a problem. Whatever past article we choose, it will show the prophetic nature of these articles and why the Lord has asked us to write.

Read as much or as little as you want. I wanted to write an article about women in the Bible and why the New Testament has many women leaders. There has been some kind of lie going around that supposedly our American military is being told women cannot be in leadership according to the Bible. That is a lie and easily proven why God puts women in leadership. I did want to wait until this Iran war is over, but that seems to be taking a lot more time than it should. I will write that article, I just don't know when; hopefully, before the end of 2026.

In a letter to his wife, John Adams, showing his devotion to God and his understanding of the personality of the nation wrote: "I am apt to believe that [Independence Day] will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more.”<sup>1</sup> (Bold type, mine for embellishments).

The Declaration is one page, divided by paragraphs. Many people have since highlighted it by sections. I will do that here, although, I will let you know that in order to ignore some of the Godly parameters of the document, some declare that the intro and the preamble are not binding because they are such. I find that to be insulting and ridiculous. The only reason why I will divide them into sections is because sometimes it is easier to read. I do not hold to the opinion that dividing the document into sections in any way diminishes any sections’ authority. This copy was on Wikipedia and can be found by that simple search parameter.

THE UNITED STATES’ DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Introduction:

“In Congress, July 4, 1776

“The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

“When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

Preamble:

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.”

Grievances:

“Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

“He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

“He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

“He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

“He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

“He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

“He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

“He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

“He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

“He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

“He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out of their substance.

“He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

“He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil Power.

“He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

“For protecting them, by a mock Trial from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

“For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

“For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

“For depriving us in many cases, of the benefit of Trial by Jury:

“For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences:

“For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

“For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

“For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

“He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

“He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

“He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & Perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

“He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

“He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

“In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.”

Failed warnings:

“Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity.”

Denunciation:

“We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.”

Conclusion:

“We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.”

Following is an article Pastor Chris wrote and was placed on this site in December of 2022. Biden was president at the time. It was written to expose the difference between our founding and socialism-communism. You can go to the Archives Tab here on the site and read it from there or you can read it below. It explains the reason why socialism and communism are not scientific and why it has never worked in any of the countries it has been tried in. If something does not follow natural science, it cannot be successful. Those who extol it say it is successful because some people are rich. But the success of an ideology is that all people can live successfully, if they have the capability to do so. That's why the world wants to live in America. We do not have the land for the world. All these people were never meant to live here in America. They must live in their own countries and change it. Yes, it takes work, but it took work for our ancestors to do it. They cannot be allowed to steal our hard work. They must bring it home to their own countries. Here is the article from December 2022:

HAVE TODAY'S AMERICAN CHRISTIANS

BECOME LIKE LEADERS DURING JESUS' BIRTH?

By: Rev. Chris Meier

“That’s quite a negative title, preacher. You just insulted every Christian in America.” I can tell you from the start that is not my intention. But I do need to draw some comparisons because I think we, like folks living during Jesus’ birth, have missed the understanding of what God is doing in our country right now. Jesus loves us totally. Yet, we don’t always recognize the people He sends us to avert war, save our economies and preach the true gospel. We love the law instead of grace; complaining about the economy instead of recognizing blessing and leaders who will bring us to war by their weak morals instead of leaders who may not be perfect, but who love and care for the American people and haven't taken a dime from China and communism.

I'm going to say it right from the start: You can't claim Christ and vote for Democrats/socialists/communists. I wrote them as one because they are ONE. Until you have a biblical worldview, you cannot see when the world has thrown in with the view of satan/Lucifer/the devil. He is known by all those names, some of which I refuse to capitalize. When Jesus came on the scene sometime around the turn of two millennia past, He was thrown in a stable for his birth and chased from the country by corrupt government. Very few of His fellow citizens recognized His birth or genealogy. He would be termed a "bastard" for most of His life. His countrymen had little or any power to stop the corruption in their own government, never mind the invading authority which ruled them. But they did spend what little power they had: They wasted it on killing Him. When you seek God's counsel for your life, you seek His counsel for America: "The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God" (Psalm 14:2: See also Psalm 27).

Today in America, we do not recognize the fact that all those in the "ruling party," namely, democrats are communists. I would venture to say ninety percent of the country has no understanding concerning this. Likewise, they refuse or do not know that the man sitting in the White House right now is being ruled by something else. He is compromised and has allowed millions of dollars to enrich him, mainly from communist China.<sup>3</sup>

As Christians, we are supposed to stand for truth. How can we do that when we refuse to see the truth? Or worse, call the truth a lie and a lie the truth? This country was started by Christians centuries ago. It was an experiment in doing government God's way instead of the rest of the world which, for the most part, functioned as monarchies. They took what they saw in other countries and combined the tools they saw in our own country. Most people think it started with the US Constitution. That is incorrect. The states had constitutions, bills of rights or bills of liberties, as well as declaration documents for over a century before we implemented a federal government. Many colonies took some of their government documents from church governmental documents.

What our forefathers saw was the Bible. Yes, there were elements of Greek or Roman aspects of government there as well. I wrote a 698-page book proving how, what and why America came to be what she was before the communists took over. “Oh, there you go again, preacher; that simply is not true. We don’t have communists running anything here.” If I prove it to you, will you finally realize the danger we are in? Will you finally understand why, if we don’t turn this thing around, we are most assuredly going into captivity? “Well, preacher, that has got to be the worse Christmas article, ever! I mean, what the heck? Aren’t you supposed to teach about Jesus and why He came and how we are supposed to live our lives now?” My answer would be, yes, to all of those questions. Read on and you will see how I will share Christ and how we can live in Christmas every day.

An Original Start

While our forefathers were not totally original in their governmental outreach — they did borrow many tools from others— they combined many of those tools in a totally original format. They looked at the Bible and saw that covenant was the best way to go in a country where people could live freely with one another. That means they would look at federalism because the word federal means covenant.<sup>4</sup> They then understood that a political covenant needed other vehicles or tools within it to work because different people from different lands would need to live in one country. Originally, that was thirteen colonies. The Bible showed them a compact with a covenant. That is what the book contains: Two separate covenants, which governed two different people in different lands.<sup>5</sup>

Compacts were not new, just like federalism wasn’t new. But our ancestors saw quite a unique way of doing a federal compact.<sup>6</sup> They started with a declaration, because most churches, colonies and states started that way.<sup>7</sup> On a federal or national level where all thirteen colonies had the same fight with England, they wrote what they wanted to govern them within a declaration by listing their arguments against the monarchy and parliament. Realizing that The Declaration of Independence alone could not totally govern by stopping tyranny, they wrote Articles of Confederation. Realizing how weak those were, they got together after the Revolutionary War and wrote our US Constitution.

Compacts Hold Many Items

This is where we see the Bible in our present federal documents: Bills of liberties or a bill of rights was known to keep people with a despot frame of mind in check. All their church governments had them.<sup>8</sup> Your American Bill of Rights has a 75% framework from the Bible itself due to the influence of church governmental documents exercised within the governing vehicles of the thirteen original colonies.<sup>9</sup> So, between the Bill of Rights, the US Constitution and The US Declaration of Independence, both of which had some church-government influence, as well as placing them all in a compact, you've got quite a bit of influence from a biblical standpoint when viewing the American documents. Of course, your media and schools will no longer teach this. Why do you think that is; could it be communism or socialism has crept into our school system?

Let me share that aspect of our more modern history. Seeing the jewel that America was, the socialists could not leave the country alone for very long. But they were having a problem. Their way of infiltration had always been by causing division and disunity between the classes. Because most understood a Christian worldview in those days, most understood disunity is not about our race or money, but about our love for Jesus and the understanding our new nature in Christ plays on our viewpoints.

Socialism Must Cause Division

Socialism is a great lie, but it's tricky too. It must fool you into thinking it's better. In socialism you own nothing in principle. Now, by application they give you something to own until they decide to take you over completely. This is why socialism is communism's mother. In fact, the goal of every communist is socialism—or so they tell you. But in fact, communists always desire more and more control and power. So they always start with socialism. In order to infiltrate with socialism you must cause chaos and division.

You couldn't cause division in order to take the country over by playing on the hurting masses in America. That's because freedom and liberty encourages humans to work hard and get ahead. Jesus made it clear that when we believe in Him, we are diverse, but Jesus makes us One, or undivided (Matthew 12:24-26; John 17:21). Our ancestors understood these biblical principles, and as such, understood what it took to start a country. As a side note, let me ask a question: Who did Jesus say was the giver of life, and life more abundantly? And whom did Jesus say was the thief who came to steal, kill and destroy (John 10:10)? So I guess humans who start a government to steal by over taxation and outright theft of liberty must be following the devil, right?

Here's some parts of our government they have taken over: Education Department, Executive Branch; half of the Legislative Branch; Homeland Security and The Treasury, DOJ, and all aspects of our Health and Human Services.<sup>10</sup> As a side note on proof that they are corrupt: what do the State Department, Homeland Security and the American citizen have in common? Their yearly budgets could have been met had Biden and this corrupt Congress not turned over all the billions they did to Ukraine. Do you know

<sup>10</sup> Education: see Footnote 13; Executive Branch: remember that Biden signed this into law: < <https://www.glennbeck.com/radio/how-the-inflation-reduction-act-targets-farmers-and-you> > as well see Footnote 1. I could also include the Legislative Branch because the communist Democrats voted for it. But, here is another link where you will see the corruption up close and personally in one bill alone: < <https://heartlanddailynews.com/2022/08/senate-passes-inflation-reduction-act-after-vote-a-rama/>. why they did? Ukraine knows where the Obama Administration's money all went.<sup>11</sup>

Adding to the socialists problems of taking America over, is the fact that it isn't until 1916 that the Federal government gets the ability to tax Americans. I wonder how many of you even realize that it was through tariffs that the American government was able to pay for itself up until 1916. It wasn't because it couldn't continue doing so. It was because there was always a special allowance to tax during times of war. The Federal government can easily use tariffs to pay for itself. It is true because of communism and the radical Muslim threat that we might have to have a specialized 'war' tax nowadays, which wasn't the case in days gone by.

If you will remember, Trump was beginning to implement this. But, the 'powers that be' in America couldn't allow her citizens to see the success of that aspect of freedom and liberty. So, they attacked him because of tariffs, claiming we would go broke. No, we wouldn't, but their war industry certainly would be on a leash. Furthermore, do you know that states like Florida— called free Florida for this reason— has no state income tax? Using much of the same principles our founding fathers did, Republican Florida governors like De Santis, Scott and Bush have always advocated for using income streams that enable a state budget that doesn't have to tax its citizens. Tariffs do something similar on a federal level. Sure, you must use them wisely and know how to bargain. In other words, you have to do your job and work for the people, not for the 'powers that be.'

This Government Owns You

Socialism and communism, or mother and child, are governmental systems that take from their citizens. The citizens are owned by them, not the other way around. They don't tell you that up front. You have to go and read their literature to find that out.<sup>12</sup> Do you wonder why they demanded you take a shot that wasn't necessary but that will kill you quite easily?<sup>13</sup> Did they tell you that legally you didn't have to take the shot, but if you did, all legal liability would be yours?<sup>14</sup> Socialists have to control you and your bodies. You have to understand that socialists— on their road to communism and communism, which always says they are really attempting to implement socialism— will never tell you the truth. The truth is that they will use your system to do everything they can to take total control over you.

They use your fear to 'protect' you by enacting harsher and harsher laws. Now, when your laws and lawgivers give you peace and security, then their tactics are different. If you have peace and security and they need to make you afraid, they will put in a system of lawmakers who will not implement the law. This is what they are doing right now by getting radical DAs and other lawmakers voted in.<sup>15</sup> These radicals are allowing criminals to run rampant on streets and committing more and more crimes so you feel unsafe — which it is in these districts they control— and you cry out for more laws that remove liberty. That way the criminals are not restricted, but the freedoms of law-abiding citizens are.

All this overtaxation, removal of norms like our own history through CRT, various lies concerning the racial divide,<sup>16</sup> or gender-bending indoctrination to subvert children is taken from the communist play-book. It is their way to take over a country without engaging a more technologically advanced enemy, all the while taking the time to make themselves stronger against a technological superior. The US Democrats are using it to gain control. Some of them know they are following the Communist Chinese Art of War. It is called The Three Legs of Warfare Strategy: Psychological warfare, legal warfare and media warfare.

First, they take over major institutions like media, education and the courts. While they are doing that, they implement a psychological trauma on the public; whether against their children, their safety or their health, it is irrelevant. Sometimes, it's all three at once. Very few leaders understand what's going on when China buys up farmland near our military installations or they "give" cell phone tower technology away for free in rural areas.<sup>17</sup> They send their students to learn at major US universities, and try to get our students into their Chinese Confucius Institutes at those same universities.

These "institutes" are Chinese indoctrination programs. They have already infiltrated our military, all the while addicting children to drugs, TikTok and promiscuity.<sup>18</sup> This is the way they control. They would never allow that to go on with their own people. I've listened to experts tell the stories of how different TikTok is in China. It is run by the same parent company, but filled with mathematics and science and excelling in college and school. No flirty, stupid dance moves and cheeky videos; their social media wants people who can run a country, not complain their way to the top.

You want to know why the Biden Administration is refusing to do its job by protecting American citizenry from illegal immigration, as well as giving our resources away to other countries?<sup>19</sup> They actually gain voters and money doing so. New voters whom they indoctrinate early on to vote for them give them the power and money to “fix the climate” by denying our oil and resource rights. Climate change is just another way to control the public. How do I know that? There are many scientists who have already proven it is another canard.<sup>20</sup> Of course, they take billions of taxpayer dollars to fix what isn’t broken.

New York City: A Personal Experience

Looking at all the footnotes, if I haven’t proven a communistic takeover through socialism’s corruption, then I don’t know what to say to you. If you may have kept an open mind, let me share with you my personal experience with growing up in the New York City metropolitan area. New York City from the sixties throughout most of the seventies was a hell hole. I’m not exaggerating. Nobody walked through 42nd Street. In fact, blocks in both directions were also no-go areas. Not because you couldn’t stroll down them, but because if you did, you took your life in your hands. Even in the areas that weren’t too bad, hookers would follow the group, attempting to proposition every man they could.

If you were blessed enough to get in a taxi or on a cross-town bus going down 42nd Street, what you saw was horrifying. Young people in doorways with needles sticking out of their arms or people getting shot or robbed or fights breaking out. No one walked down 42nd Street; no one. New York City had democrat mayors from 1950 until 1993. From Lindsay until Dinkins, they were various kinds of democrats, but primarily from Koch until Dinkins they were exceptionally socialistic in their approach. They hid this from the public, as most democrats do. The City went downhill during their time period in exponential ways.

It was so bad that democrats— who normally couldn’t get over the fact that they have been lied to about republicans— actually pulled the switch for a republican in 1994. That man was Rudy Giuliani. Rudy— or Mr. Mayor, as most called him— did what all republicans want to do. He lifted all boats by inviting all kinds of money men to invest in the City. There was a whole team of them and Trump was one of those money guys. I will tell you this, even us republicans wondered whether anyone could fix the mess that was New York

<sup>20</sup> < https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=4BFdyYu4w\_Q >< <https://chroniclesmagazine.org/columns/the-real-cost-of-electric-vehicles/>. >

City. Folks, it was that bad. But something amazing happened. Within five years you could walk down 42nd Street! I couldn't believe my eyes when I took a bus cross-town.

Socialists see conservative policies and think it's just about throwing money at a situation, but it is not. It's about following biblical principles. They brought real estate investors in; people that wanted to make money and knew they had to take care of their properties in order to do so. They created many affordable housing apartments and built many luxury buildings in the process. This and many other kinds of investments brought in good paying jobs, where people earn a living and respect, not a handout from welfare and control. I dare say New York City was almost safe again— well, almost. Hey, all cities are dangerous places. But you could actually take a stroll on streets again. You couldn't say that easily before Giuliani got in. Bloomberg ran next on a republican ticket. Somewhere in between he became a democrat. But, he knew where his goose was cooked and realized it was important to keep the same practices Giuliani had implemented in place.

Unfortunately, New York City is becoming a hell hole again. You might ask why that could be: Democrats implementing socialistic policies again. For some reason, people believe the lie that socialism works. Scientifically it never can. They actually believe the lies that republicans are racist and only work for the rich. This simply is part of the communist media's lies to make sure you won't vote republican. Republicans now are truly the party of the working man and woman. They believe by lifting all people up with good jobs and low taxes, you create an environment where people find pride in owning their own properties and take care of them. There are many principles they implement that work. You saw this when Trump became president. In only four years' time, he fixed the border, lowered all of our taxes and got rid of the radical muslim threat of violence in our country. He was getting ready to deal with China and many other issues when a horror struck our country: Covid-19.

I'm not going to belabor that horror. One thing you should know is that Trump followed the principles of federalism — the system of covenant. This kicked all processes back to the state governors. It had to be done that way; but unfortunately, that meant if you lived in a democrat controlled state, you were stuck in lockdowns for a year or more. If you lived in a republican one, anywhere from two weeks to six months, depending upon how many democrat voices were calling for masks and more lockdowns. Please go to many of my articles on this site for the information about the virus that I am about to share.<sup>21</sup> Within a few months we knew that Ivermectin and Hydroxychloroquine worked. We also knew that secondary bacterial infections would become common due to the spike protein in the manmade virus. And yes, we also knew it was manmade. One expert said it would have taken 800 years to have mutated the way it did naturally.

The Comparison Now to Jesus' Time Period

Let me make it clear that I'm not saying republicans are perfect. I'm not perfect. The reality is we are human beings and as such, we are not perfect. As republicans, we have to watch our own. They can become corrupt and can agree to overtax and take away human rights and liberties just like the democrats do. But, we have learned as republicans to tag the turncoats. This makes us less conciliatory, but also more educated on policy. We must be led by the Holy Spirit. When we are, we realize that China right now controls their 1.3 billion people by AI in such a way that they can tell if you're sweating. They can tell if your eyes are happy or if your electronic watch shows you support their political party or not. This is frightening.<sup>22</sup>

This is what democrats want to do. I know you can't believe that, but they follow the WHO and the WEF. This is exactly what those monikers want done for the whole world. As usual, America is the fly in their ointment and Americans must be controlled. With their democrat helpers, this is exactly what is taking place as you watch and vote for them. As Christians we cannot vote for them. Let me ask a question here: Have you ever watched the real evidence of the 2020 election corruption?<sup>23</sup> Look at the footnote to find the documentary. Now, let me ask another question: We are almost totally swallowed by the communist democrats. What kind of a person do you think can stop this slide? Will he or she be a sweet-talker, or a little rough around the edges?

We need to fix this and true the vote in this country or we will continue having these problems.

Let's go to Jesus' birth. God sent a man as a forerunner before Jesus came. This man was John, the Baptizer. He was rough around the edges and called the corrupt leadership out. So much so that he was beheaded for it. Had they listened to John and not beheaded him, they wouldn't have killed the Lord of glory. But alas, they could not recognize their time of visitation. Have we done the same thing in America? Have we not recognized how close we are to this communistic-antichrist spirit swallowing up America?

Let me take you to the science of why socialism and communism can never work and only leaves the humans they control in captivity and poverty.<sup>24</sup> Only the elites have money with some level of freedom in their systems—although, their “freedoms” are really shams. Do something the party doesn't like and no matter how wealthy you are, you will either disappear or be silenced.

Here Is The Science:

Socialism, by definition is the philosophical, social and economic system whereby society, its money, ventures of enterprise and industry— its people and even their religion— is owned and controlled by the state government rather than by individual people or companies or religious institutions. The socialistic doctrine demands state ownership and control of the fundamental means of production and distribution of wealth. That is to be achieved by reconstructing the existing capitalist or other political system of a country through democratic and parliamentary means. It advocates nationalization of natural resources, basic industries, banking and credit facilities and public utilities, along with the education systems in a country. Those educational systems must now teach the nationalistic mantra of the socialists' religion or ideologies. By centralizing control over key institutions of government, socialism takes over a nation. In America this was made more difficult because of its original limited and decentralized government. While certain institutions within government are necessary, heavy-handed bureaucratic control was never done until socialists started to work within the Federal bureaucracy.

Socialism places a special emphasis on the nationalization of monopolized branches of industry and trade. Socialism advocates state ownership of corporations in which the ownership function has passed from stockholders to managerial personnel. Smaller and less vital enterprises and institutions can be left under private ownership, thereby allowing private ownership of smaller corporations, though they are heavily regulated. This also was not a source of control until the ideologies of socialism started to pervade throughout a generation of CEOs who value making money through capitalism, but value control through socialism. By using a socialistic ideology, many of them think we can be fooled by the “compassion” of their company’s outreach. Their “compassion” is our captivity.<sup>25</sup> We would be better off if they kept their money and left societal “change” to the common man. Socialism’s attempted legislative takeover began in 1908 with a republican. They called it Progressivism, and has continued today through the Democratic Party in America.

Economics, the Bible and Natural Science

Biblical economics is not capitalism, but capitalism is the only system which will allow the economy of God to work, unless you want to enact a totally biblical economy. Based on science, socialism will not and can never encourage a biblical economy. In the biblical economy started by God in Genesis, the Almighty gave, as rightful owner, sovereignty to Adam for the earth, as well as his own personal autonomy. Adam turned that sovereignty over to a malevolent creature, which in turn stole what he could not have gotten through legal means. In understanding God’s economy, we must see it as a first principle. These entail original ways God made creation to function. In the beginning God gave, and what He created was made to mutually bless each thing He created. So Hebrew scholars refer to the principle of mutual beneficence as a first principle because it is how God created earth to function economically.<sup>26</sup>

<sup>26</sup> Meier, Chris, 2016. “70 Years of American Captivity: The Polity of God, The Birth of a Nation and The Betrayal of Government.” (Canada, Tellwell Publishers), pp 541-558

We know sin changed God's original plan for mankind's sovereignty as well as His original plan for economics and natural science. In the scientific world, natural science says that an experiment plus an observation produces resultant scientific principles. Ludwig Von Mises was an economic scientist, born in the late 1880s; he lived until 1973. He was an atheist, so it would seem odd that he could be a champion for the church against socialism. He was so because he proved that socialism flies in the face of all science. By doing so, he unknowingly confirmed biblical economics. Here's why:

Both the Bible and capitalism reflect the laws of natural science, since the fall of man. Of course, the Bible's spiritual laws disrupt all other science, but that's another topic entirely. Within an economic system which follows natural science, everyone is allowed access— thieves, saints, greedy hoarders and generous businesspeople— all show up. It is much easier for people who decide to connect to God's spiritual laws, to function within capitalistic venture systems simply because these reflect natural science laws more thoroughly. Within capitalism all can access the free market with whatever talents or gifts are available to them. Now, minimal regulation is usually needed in capitalistic systems in order to minimize theft or total lawlessness. Otherwise, even crooks are allowed into the system if they can play by the rules enacted by whatever capitalist country they are in.

So the Bible is not capitalism, but it works easily within capitalistic structures because it works with, or "covenants" within natural science systems quite closely. The reason why the results for people within this system are different is because people are different. In countries which use capitalism as their economic system, people are free to engage the system as their skill and success enable them. This will, based on natural science, produce different results.

The Lie

Socialists love to tell the lie that under their system everyone owns everything in common. In other words, everything the state owns, you own. This is a total lie because it flies in the face of natural science. Among most economists, the basic science for the definition of ownership is in the having or occupying. Occupation is synonymous with ownership simply because when you occupy, you have. Within science, economists make the observation that there are two ways in which one occupies, or owns. You either gain ownership through violence (theft, deception, etc.) or you gain ownership through peaceful (legal) means. Scientifically, there are various different types of ownerships. Some different types of ownership are in consumption goods, durable goods, land, rentals, stocks, bonds, et cetera.

There is a difference between ownership in consumption goods and durable goods. A consumption good is used up and gone; so its ownership is in the hands of the one using it, i.e., a private owner. Thus, there can only be the one consuming a good that is used up who is the owner. If you eat an apple, you are the owner. Even if you give your apple away, or let it rot, or cut it up to share with others, in each case it is disposed of, the ownership is not divided, nor can it be. In the case of a consumption good used by a number of people, it can still only be used by the person who consumes it at that time—or in their possession, regardless of legal constructs. So even in this case the ownership is in the having, but it is still in a moment in private ownership. Scientifically, it can be nothing else, no matter what anyone calls it. Ownership/occupation is in the Having.

There is another form of ownership we must discuss in addition to consumable-goods ownership. Let's look at production-goods or durable goods owners. If I am a producer of TVs, or a farmer with a large production company growing and selling avocados nationwide, I might have a legal piece of paper telling me my company is in the shares of a corporation, but the reality of the having is that it is multi-faceted. On the one hand you have the one who physically has and you have the one who indirectly has. In both of these cases, the “owner” does not control the production as someone who grows food for their family does. The family farmer using their home-grown consumption goods are private owners. Production good “owners” are controlled by end “have” consumers— both the durable product TV owner and the consumption production-good, single avocado owner. They are the reason why someone makes TVs. Even those who need trucking companies, stores and electronic parts in order to produce and sell these goods have a division of labor involved in the production of them.

So the natural, scientific ownership of production goods is different from the natural ownership of consumption goods. In other words, you don't need to own an electronics store to own a TV and you don't need to own a farm with avocado trees in order to own an avocado. So in a society in which production goods labor is divided, no one is an exclusive owner of the means of production. It's really the consumers who are the true owners in this environment. They would be the reason why the producer enters into an economic endeavor. So they would be owners in a natural sense and the producer the administrator in a legal sense of other people's property. This is why the "having," or the ownership is multifaceted in a production-good economy and is different from the consumption-good private owner.

Now, there are various different types of ownership in which the model changes, like rentals, stocks, bonds, land, et cetera. While one must look at various legalities in each, thus setting different parameters for ownership, the basic elements of the science still holds true. Suffice it to say within production goods, the ownership is already in common by the nature of production, with the understanding of whether it is a durable good or a consumable good.

Let me take the observation to its conclusion. If you, no matter what anyone can define you as, own what you consume (use) as the end user as a private owner, and you own what you purchase from others as an owner in common within a system of production, then what is socialism/progressivism really offering you? What it is doing is stealing what you already own and lying to you that you can own everything else in common but, in a very real sense, based on natural laws of science, you already do.

So it is stealing into the hands of an "entity" (the state) you do not have any ownership rights in (remember ownership is in the having), what you already owned in common in a production setting and what you already owned privately in a consumption setting. Although, if you ate an avocado, or other consumption good, no matter how progressives regulate that avocado, you owned it! Socialism is violently appropriating what it never had to begin with, now making a state entity the legal owner of what it would never, according to natural laws of science, own anyway. It's worse than a shell game. It's a con game on the gullible leaving them penniless. It's also something else: it is the exact mirror image of what the devil did when he stole Adam's sovereignty, as well as the original biblical economy God implemented in the beginning.

The Devil and the Lie

The devil has no creative abilities. He is a spirit with no body. He can control nothing on the planet unless he convinces silly humans he can, getting them to turn over their own abilities. Humans have creative ability to birth governments, economic systems and other constructs simply because Adam was given authority to do so in the beginning. We build and birth church systems the same way. These institutions or constructs have no life of their own but reflect life, simply because humans started them. Different applications of natural science apply to them differently because they are different. Just like gravity is not mass, you still have to be careful not to come up against mass traveling at a speed which will kill you. In other words, don't jump off of buildings. You may confuse the science of gravity with the science of mass, but there will be no confusion to what happens when land meets mass.

While these entities are not robots and they are not mechanical, they still need structure and parameters to function by the humans who instituted them. They must do something else: they must function according to natural science or they will not survive. In order for the devil to control them, he must convince humans they are mechanical, a system with no other need but to be controlled; cold, calculated and functional: that's it. No need for the warmth and original design they were created for and no need to function with the natural environment of natural science— or, as in the case of churches— the immutable paths instituted by God.

There is no way for the devil to control something created by humans unless he convinces them it has no other need but to be controlled. Or, as he did with Eve, you can get “something” better by doing it his way. Remember, Adam and Eve already had God's image. The serpent tried to convince them they could be what they already were by doing it his way, not God's way.

This is how he gets churches to keep operating with no Holy Spirit presence. This is how he deceives socialists that an economy is a thing to be mechanically engineered. That somehow they can own an economy. This is how he works. He is not creative and cannot be. He deceives to get power and then, because he is not the originator of what he steals, he functions by mechanical observation. Within a capitalistic economic system, because it must function by the rhythms and movements of natural science, it invites all to come; the deceiver may show up, but so does the church, individuals and others.

If, while in that system you overspend or create too many TVs, you can go bankrupt, or you can flood the market and you lose the specialized pricing you would have gotten to help you survive. Because this kind of economics works within natural science, it must work with incentives and declines. Everything that works within laws of natural science must do that. Gravity works within natural science. Go against those laws, and watch something fall.

Why Socialists and Communists Must Steal

Because we are in a birth and death cycle of the planet, all things which function according to natural science are going to go through a birth and death cycle— a rise and a fall— including economies. When we allow natural science to function in economic systems, recovery happens quicker. When we tinker with economies like progressives (socialists) and communists do, you extend the time it takes to recover. This has been proven over and over, but never so clearly as when FDR tinkered with the Federal government, creating as close to a progressive socialistic state as he could. Economists, even the liberal ones, have proven it dramatically increased and extended the recession at that time.<sup>27</sup>

You also do not produce innovative products; you must steal them instead. We see this with countries like Russia and China. They must steal because they don't place natural science incentives for the original creators to work, thus forcing innovation behind the veil of bureaucracy or the state. God created Adam with free choice and free will to rule. It is against God's design for mankind to turn our autonomy, authority and responsibility over to an entity called The State.

Let me ask you, if you claim Christianity, how can you vote for this evil? Is it because God decided to use a man who is rough around the edges to do the Holy Spirit's will on earth? Or do you ignore God's use of pharaoh, Jehu, Pilate and others? Are you so saintly that you never sinned before your salvation? God does not ask us to "like" the people He chooses to use. He asks us to do as Jesus commands.

Implications for Tomorrow

In next month's article I will review the reasons why we must, as Christians prove how the nation started and why we don't want "the change" or "Great Reset" they are talking about. The reality is that scientifically, it will only create a place for the controlled and the lesser controlled. It will never create a working environment like we have developed in America. Unfortunately, our young people are buying into the lie that communism or socialism can work. They are also buying into the lie that somehow America is evil and it must be silenced, denied or violently overthrown. Their "change" means silence, denial of freedoms and eventually violence.

What's being done to farmers in the name of agricultural "change" is horrifying. You will not be able to find a cow, let alone eat one. Do you think China and Russia are being overthrown with ESG and other demagogues? They contain some of the most polluting places on the planet. Do you want to know one of the most polluting places here in America? California; yes, folks, that brandy wine of American pot growers.<sup>28</sup>

One of several places where it is legal to smoke pot, you have so many illegal pot growers that they have polluted their national forests, made the native wildlife nearly extinct in the northern part of the state, and moved— or really violently removed— the rural, predominately white, citizens who were born and raised there. Although, they are color-blind in their removal process— black, white or 'other' they don't care. And what's the "new savior" of the Democrat Party— Gavin Newsom— doing about the lawlessness?

<sup>28</sup> < <https://finance.yahoo.com/news/cartels-growing-marijuana-illegally-california-194700553.html> >< <https://www.oregonlive.com/nation/2019/11/illegal-pot-farm-leaves-toxic-garbage-dump-in-northern-california-national-forest.html> >< <https://greenrushedaily.com/weed/are-weed-growers-ruining-the-forests-in-california> >< <https://headtropics.com/ca/illegal-cannabis-grow-sites-in-northern-california-are-destroying-the-ecosystem-5227636> >

Absolutely nothing; do you want to know why? Because the one particular county that is inundated with the immigrants taking over the county voted by an 83% margin to recall Newsom.<sup>29</sup>

They hate him for the very reason he ignores them. This is only one hell waiting for us in America if these democrat-commies go national, or are allowed to ruin the states they control. If you ask the question, what is wrong with that, let me share just one aspect of why that is a problem. In our covenant related system, elected officials must work for all the people. In a communist or socialist-controlled society, unless you support them, their job is to kill you— or at least make sure your freedom of speech rights are overcome. This is what we are seeing with the Twitter exposure of what was done in both the 2020 and 2022 elections.<sup>30</sup>

Living Christ Daily

We will have many choices in many different elections to vote for people. We can't vote for people based upon what looks good or what doesn't look good to our natural eyes. By voting for what looks good, but refuses the will of God, you vote for the evil of the democrats— socialists and communists. That system is backed by satan, himself; it is the antichrist spirit. This is what you see spoken of in the book of Revelation. While it may not be the time for the one-world government to take over, it is time for us, as Christians to say yes to the system and the people God puts forward to help us stand up against this evil system. Ultimately, when we overcome these evil-doers, we live Christmas daily and are brought back to living with Christ daily. Remember that progressives (socialists) and communists can never allow the religious to function. They see all religions as competition to their ideas and desires for control. As Christians, we cannot do life silently. This goes against The Great Commission Jesus gave us (Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:15-20; Luke 24:46-47).

When we are taught by the elders of the church, we learn from the Bible what it means to have a Christian worldview (Job 11:18-19). When we understand the Holy Spirit's working on the earth in the affairs of mankind, our eyes are opened to understand that the gifts the antichrist, communist-socialistic spirit gives are overtaxation, silence and finally, death (Job 11:11-14, 20). Adam and Eve were blinded to that reality because they disobeyed. Jesus helps us to see that freedom and liberty are the best gifts to give our children; after all, our system was originally given to us by the Creator and we all know Jesus said He came to give us life and life more abundantly (John 10:10): This is the real Christmas and the real gospel story. I'll vote for that every day, no matter how crass the person is God sends to help us implement it.
