

WHEN ANGELS MAKE DECISIONS

By: Rev. Chris Meier

I had just finished an extended time of paperwork from a project I never wanted to become a part of. To say I was thrilled the aggravation was coming to an end would be an understatement. The upcoming cessation of that work left me with an odd desire to chill like a couch potato and watch TV on Saturday, July 13, 2024. For a reason I cannot explain, I kept switching channels from one to another, only to see before me an almost-live broadcast of the 2024 first-attempted assassination of President Trump. This is going to sound sad— it does to me — but I was not surprised.

The vitriol fomented against this man since 2015 has been ridiculous. Because I lived in the area Trump lived in, I knew of him and his generosity, as well as more difficult personal life stories concerning him and his wives. So there isn't much this communist media— who claims to want freedom of the press for them, but not everyone else— could tell me by way of lies when it comes to Trump. I never listen to them anyway. I always do my own research.

In 2017, when he first started in office, the Lord gave me a word connecting Trump to the life of Nehemiah. I remember writing an article concerning Nehemiah and America in April of 2017.¹ This is when the Lord told me that like Nehemiah, Trump would experience two assassination attempts. I shared it with the intercessors and made some references in the article and then left it to prayer. I think I had read that two assassination plots against Trump had been foiled. But there really wasn't any widespread knowledge of it. Figuring that our prayers had made an impact, I left it. We've never stopped praying for his safety, especially after the Mar-a-Lago raid. The Lord had not been specific in 2017, except for the words “assassination attempts.” Are plots attempts? Yes, they are. I was concerned enough to ask those in our little group to pray for his safety, for what now is many years. If you ever get a chance to research all that Trump did for this country during his tenure as president, it will shock and surprise you.² He has been so good for America and so bad for the socialist-communist democrats that it is obvious why the media hates him so.

Is the Media Willfully Disingenuous or Just Brainwashed?

Unity, they cry; but unity cannot be displayed as long as you refuse to repent from years and years of vocal violence and lies against not only the leader of the free world, but his supporters and staff. We cannot confuse unity with remaining silent in the face of abject lies. Socialism is a disease and a dangerous ideology that can destroy a family, a group of people and multiple nations. One tenet of socialism is that they are allowed to lie as long as it gets them ahead, or gets them what they want. Their reasoning is that socialism is so good, a lie can only benefit socialism if it gets their policies enacted.

Democrats portray any republican who dares tell the truth of the damage they caused to our nation over the previous three and a half years as “dangerous” and other words with a similar narrative. Socialism’s policies demand chaos. You might ask why? Well, when they are attempting to overtake a stable country, chaos must be fomented so they look like saviors. They want the populace to cry out to “save” them with more and more stringent and liberty-removing policies. In fact, there is a recent “rule” that just went into effect allowing active-duty military to ² If any of the footnotes I have placed within the pages of this article fail, search the topic as well as news organization. It should yield the link where they have moved it. assist in domestic law enforcement activities and exercise lethal force.³ Active duty are not allowed to function against Americans on U.S. soil. But they can now, and they can go after anyone any administration deems a threat.

The Green New Deal; forgiving billions in student loans without a vote, but by decree; open borders desecrating the laws of a nation; the theft of our energy resources by selling it to our adversaries, thus making sure citizens cannot afford to pay for its higher price— and let's not forget the wasteful give-away of billions of dollars so inflation soars and the government trashing taxpayer funds repays its debt through trashed dollars. Let's not forget how these democrats used up 80 percent of the strategic oil supply to lower the price of gas before the 2022 election. They actually said they would buy it back when the price of oil went down, thus making money for the country.

The price of fuel has soared and democrats have left our country in trouble if we can't get oil when a crisis pops up. Democrats lie about people or call them names, making sure unity is impossible. Telling the truth about the policies of the democrats' socialism is unifying. It exposes why the citizenry is experiencing the effects of inflation, trashed dollars and a ruinous economy, never mind the dangers of removing freedom of religion, speech, thought, as well as many other freedoms.

Another deceptive act by the media is in obfuscating the physical and mental acuity of Joe Biden. Even before he entered the White House, I saw many videos of the same Joe Biden everyone else saw at his debate against Trump in 2024. I've been seeing this Joe Biden for four years. For the media to act shocked, and for Democrats to be appalled enough to demand a democratically elected candidate be removed and replaced by someone nobody has voted for, is hubris and criminal.⁴ I feel like attempting to sell a bridge in Brooklyn is akin to what the democrats have done by moving Harris into Joe's campaign.⁵ They have known, as many of us have seen, that Biden is not capable to be president. Harris said on "The View" that she made many of the decisions of the last four years. It seems from her "View" appearance that we have her to thank for the use of taxpayer funds to cause inflation, the removal of U.S. military forces from Afghanistan as well as many other debacles. These last few years is clear proof of Biden's senility as well as Harris' incompetence.

The Deception of the Media Narrative

Before my eyes and ears that Saturday in July 2024, was an audio that purported to display popping sounds. As the news before me was unfolding, I had not made contact with anyone yet but my husband. What I came to learn later, after hearing audio that actually depicted what was happening, was that it was gunfire. It wasn't until Trump got up that I saw the blood.

The audio from ABC News was deceptive. I've lived in agricultural farmland for over 35 years. I'm not an ordnance expert, but I can tell the difference between firecrackers and bullets, buckshot or long-range arms fire. I thought it was entirely possible that ABC News was telling the truth and the blood on Trump's face may have been from glass. After all, I quipped to my husband, "In a crowd like that, there's no way somebody else is not going to get hit with a bullet. If it's a bullet, you're going to have blood." Well, I came to find out quite quickly that our news organizations were trying to keep the populace ignorant. Within 30 minutes an intercessor sent me an un-doctored audio. It was immediately evident within the first shot that bullets were involved. ABC's audio sounded like "popping." But the true audio that was sent to me revealed the recoil action, which is unmistakable within the sound of firearms.

I find it impossible that a large news organization such as ABC has such poor quality audio that can't rival that of a cell phone from the crowd. Of course, the media floods the news market so that their deceptive actions get buried under mounds of inundating "news." The other thing that made me disgusted with their fabrications, was the withholding of the casualties. I had to go online to find out one man had been killed and two others had serious injuries— the exact argument I gave my husband that bullets involve bloodshed. Popping sounds can be shattered glass or firecrackers or some other exploding sound; but bullets have an address, and when that many people are in a crowded place, a bullet's address brings the hideous delivery of bloodshed. There's no mistaking that after-effect for anything else but a bullet — or bullets, plural, in this case.

I have caught the media in so many lies over so many years, that I can recognize their fabrications quite quickly. Unfortunately, the American population still believe they tell the truth. They rarely do; but calling them out is difficult because most of their lies are shrouded in half truths. One of their favorite fabrications is when Trump jokes. He speaks as a New Yorker and assumes everyone gets his jokes. He also jokes about facts. One of his recent ones was that he was the "father" of IVF. The sad reality is it's not as easy to get the whole speech online anymore. As a New Yorker, there were rumors about the Trumps. One was that one of his children was conceived by IVF. He's always been a supporter.

When I went back to get the whole speech, I was unable to find it quickly for this article. Frankly, research takes quite a bit of time and I'm sure if I looked hard enough I could have found the whole speech, but "all of a sudden" it became harder to do so. Finding the clip was easy, but not the whole speech. Another thing some don't know about him: He is a great father and he cares deeply for the nation's children.⁶ Yet these attacks on him can only last for so long. It takes days to open up the evidence. That's because the media are counting on any one who does the research to do it quickly. If people can't find it immediately, they move on. After a few days or a week, it's harder to hide, and voila, all of a sudden you can find the evidence. If you're on a time limit, you won't have it in time to publish or waste your time waiting for the truth to come back online, if it comes back at all.

Unless you know the actual facts, or you've got the links already, you can be easily fooled or foiled. Democrats love to fool people.⁷ One of their recent whoppers was in covering up the plagiarism of a book Harris wrote.⁸ This annoys me because when writing you need to footnote your sources, or at least footnote other sources who had a similar thought that you had, even though you may never have used that reference for your own idea. I do my best to do both, though I can't always find folks who have had the same thought as myself simply because I don't know these people exist. So to know a vice president has ignored this crucial step for integrity, and that she is now a presidential candidate, who lies repeatedly is, to say the least, upsetting. It wasn't until her fraud made it around social media that I saw something on state-friendly media about her plagiarism. They wait to see if a story "has legs" before they will report it.

Two other items that irked me happened to be actions and statements from the Secret Service that the news organizations gladly repeated. Don't get me wrong, protecting two different men like Trump and Biden can't be easy. Jump on Joe Biden the way Trump was jumped by the Secret Service, and I dare say you're going to break one of Biden's bones. Notwithstanding Trump's love affair with cheeseburgers, and the Secret Services' training: Trump can take the "protection" a lot easier than Biden without collapsing.

⁸ <https://www.breitbart.com/politics/2024/10/14/nolte-famed-plagiarism-hunter-busts-kamala-harris-book-copied-virtually-entire-wikipedia-article-fabricated-source-reference/>

I had already known that Biden's administration denied RFK, Jr.'s request for Secret Service protection many weeks before July 13, 2024. I thought it odd considering the fact that the Secret Service portends to stop assassinations and RFK's father and uncle were murdered by assassinations. I understand a candidate has to have certain polling numbers in order to receive certain benefits, but there has to be an exception for extraordinary situations. While I'm not a supporter of RFK, Jr.'s policies, you just can't deny his unique upbringing as a result of the tragic events his family experienced specifically because of political ASSASSINATIONS!

To deny him the specialized protection from the Secret Service strikes me a petty. One thing Harris and Biden, in fact, most democrats are known for, is that they will always find a cause for retribution if you go against them.⁹ The epitome of going against them is to campaign against them. Heck, stop shuffling billions that these democrat-socialists like Harris and Biden are handing over to Iran, China, Ukraine and other of their pet projects. Shift a small amount over and let the Secret Service do what they claim they can do.

The Retribution of the Democrats

That brings me to the two items I find disturbing. As soon as Trump went to stand up, it became obvious the agents—specifically one tiny woman—could not cover his body. Major parts of it were exposed. Not being an expert in protecting anyone, it seemed odd to me that Trump was not covered properly by agents. I'm going to leave nameless one of the experts I contacted afterwards, but the word "munchkins" was mentioned when talking about the Secret Service agents in the field who were bestowed the duty of protecting Trump. Trust me when I say every time I see a photo or video of them "covering" Trump, I have an ear worm of laughter in my head. I can't view any media of them without hearing munchkins! I was told recently that Trump's detail now includes tall men. Okay, great; but does it have to take an assassination attempt to do what seems obvious to the rest of us non-expert protection folks?

Of course, the lies keep coming and much of it has to do with money. They tried to cover up the fact that Trump had no protection from a building around 150 yards out. For over a week they claimed the building was 300 or so yards out. Another “senior” moment the press keeps having is in telling the truth. Let’s go through some whoppers: One, they are implying that they’re giving Trump all the protection they can. Senator McConnell and Senator Blackburn, both republicans, let it be known that the Secret Service knew of the exact threat nine minutes before they sent President Trump to the dais. Of course, the threat had not been removed yet.

I mean, what the heck is going on over there? If this doesn’t smack of retribution against someone campaigning against Harris, I don’t know what does. And if you are bothered that I mention Harris, please find the interview she did on “The View,” a morning celebrity talk show here in the U.S. In that interview she plainly said she would do nothing different from anything done since January 2021, and in fact, she said she made the decisions along with Joe while he was president for the last three years and ten months. How about the whopper that the democrats are bringing in “Hardworking Immigrants”? No, folks, that’s also a huge myth. In fact, what happens is the immigrants actually take on the hardworking ethos of America, not the other way around.¹⁰

Days after the first attempt, a whistleblower came forward saying the Secret Service was stretched thin because of the NATO conference. They sent many agents to protect foreign NATO convention-goers and Jill Biden, who was supposedly nearby. Then it came out that they needed more money. Socialism views people through the lens of favoritism. This is where ideologies like socialism wreak havoc on a nation. These are not the only areas where revenge or retribution occurs,

but money is always involved.¹¹

Where is the Money?
Has it Gone To American Citizens?

Well, more money didn't solve the problem when we discovered a second attempt was made on Trump's life while he was playing golf. Thank God for the good eyesight of a young law enforcement agent. Harris, Czar of the Border, has allowed thousands of criminal illegals over the border. Biden signed 94 executive orders reversing Trump's border wall policies. Trump saved many women and children coming over the border. You can do this research on your own, but they say over 90 percent of women coming over the border are sexually assaulted—that doesn't include the many children that come with them.

There is a huge influx of Chinese— especially young Chinese men of fighting, soldier condition. China never allows their people to leave China. How is it they allowed these young men out of China and into the U.S.? Secure borders save lives— including those of American citizens. You may have heard that illegal immigration skyrockets rent and living accommodations. There really is no reason for anyone to wonder why housing has increased three-fold since Harris-Biden got in office. Remember, she has said publicly she will not change a thing they have already done.

That brings me to more whoppers being told the American public. After two major hurricanes hit the United States, Mayorkas, the head of Homeland Security, and thus the cabinet member in charge of FEMA, says that the organization is running out of money.¹² Donald Trump, not the most eloquent speaker of the American language, said they were diverting money from FEMA to house illegal aliens. Well, the news and

¹¹ <https://www.foxbusiness.com/politics/red-state-ags-blast-secretary-yellen-over-alleged-attempts-fearmonger-against-de-banking-bans>

¹² <https://www.foxbusiness.com/politics/mayorkas-says-fema-has-no-more-disaster-funds-ig-report-says-agency-sitting-billions>

Democrats went ballistic. To say they called him a liar is an understatement.

So, do you want to hear the truth? They are in fact moving money from what should go to U.S. citizens and giving it to house illegal aliens.¹³ But do you want to know how they can lie about it? Semantics; that's right, folks! Trump used the wrong word when he said money was being "diverted". What they did in 2021, almost as soon as Biden/Harris ascended 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, was create a whole new fund— a program of sorts— where they took money Congress gave FEMA for disaster relief and moved it into this "new" program— fund, whatever you want to call it— that houses and feeds illegal aliens. Yes, folks, they created this fund with $1.4 Billion FEMA dollars. Dollars for U.S. citizen disaster relief.

That's right, money was "moved" or "taken" from FEMA for illegal aliens. Please go to Footnotes 12 and 13. I applaud the young journalist — Joshua Philipps of CrossRoads for doing the research to prove exactly what is happening (see Footnote 13). Now, it still begs the question: Does Czar Harris of the Biden/Harris White House believe they have actually created a disaster at the border? I was thinking that when Philipps mentioned it as well. We all know for a fact that the issue at the southern border had been solved by Donald Trump's Administration by forcing these illegals— millions of them from various dangerous countries— to remain in Mexico. The "remain-in-Mexico rule" meant far fewer illegals came to the southern U.S. border.

If you think this doesn't matter, tell the people of Boone, North Carolina, and other northwestern areas of North Carolina. Do you want to know why they have ignored North Carolina? Because it is run by a Democrat governor, whom I might add has little to no experience with disasters. That's right, folks, another incompetent democrat causing hell on innocent American citizens— BUT I'M NOT DONE! There is a media out there called Merit Street Media. It is run by Dr. Phil of American TV daytime-afternoon fame. While his former shows are not my cup of tea, I am impressed by what he's doing in showing the unbelievable devastation from North Carolina. He and the teams in northwest North Carolina have saved numerous lives. But he did something else: He put a spotlight on what the media was doing in ignoring the devastation. As soon as it was obvious that FEMA and government entities had done some very hinky things to North Carolinians, the regular media ran—literally RAN—from the story. It takes someone with disaster-relief experience to move a state after a storm. Once the “FEMA debacle” calmed down, state-supporting media (ABC, CBS, NBC, etc.) began showing clips from North Carolina.

I've lived through nine hurricanes and nine tropical storms. We've experienced eight or nine direct hits—I can't remember exactly. Gov. Ron DeSantis and other republican governors of Florida have extensive experience doing it. They don't put up with nonsense either. You may have heard Harris wanted to talk to DeSantis after one of the hurricanes and he refused to take her call, making the disaster political? Well folks, again, another whopper told by a deceitful media.¹⁴ When DeSantis was asked, he told the reporter plainly that he didn't know Harris called and she has never called after a hurricane in Florida to offer help anyway, so he wouldn't expect a call from her now. You can watch the video for yourself by going to the link on Footnote 14.

You may have heard the other whopper told by the media that Donald Trump made no economic effect when he was in office; and that he only gave tax relief to the rich. Well, folks, hold onto your hats because the IRS—yes, that bastion of bureaucrats democrats love to wield like a samurai with a sword—came out and said, “nope, Trump is telling the truth.”¹⁵ He made a real impact on middle-class taxpayers, as well as others all up and down the financial spectrum. The poor and middle class got real tax relief under Trump's Administration. Remember that inflation is actually a tax on all Americans.¹⁶ And poor economic policies increase inflation, fuel and energy costs.¹⁷

One thing about Trump is he's a businessman and knows economics. You also may have heard the whopper that tariffs and trade wars hurt America. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Just take yourself back to 2017 when everyone screamed tariffs would hurt us financially. Let me ask the question, "Were you hurt financially?" I bet the answer is no. And that's because neither hurt America economically, if you do them right.¹⁸ There's the whopper that Harris won't raise taxes. Her economic plan would increase taxes by $5 trillion dollars over ten years.¹⁹ And you can't even believe Harris' commerce secretary. The woman whose job it is to know the economic numbers of the country, doesn't even know when the job numbers change. The Harris-Biden Administration has cut the pay of American citizens by three to nine percent since they've gotten in office.²⁰

The Real Horror of What's Coming If You Vote Democrat

The Harris administration—I say that because she is the “Border Czar”—has been allowing cartels to control the whole country. It is a bit involved how they did it, but if you watch the video from International Reporters Roundtable, you will hear from a Texas sheriff as well as a Brazilian reporter. They share the awful scheme that is now in play.²¹ And it is clear many democrats know this is happening. But are they being outmaneuvered by China? Maybe so; I'm not quite sure. Because as soon as this "change of the guard" takes place, China will move in.²² The video from Footnote 22 is about the persecution of a Buddhist cult called Falun Gong; but it is also evidence of how China is moving people in to obtain official positions in America so they can continue this corruption. I'm not denying that this shows the real persecution on American soil of a Buddhist cult from an Asian country. China has been persecuting Christians for a century and the Uyghurs for almost 50 years. Falun Gong's persecution is dated to around 1999, roughly.

I'm not denying any of China's atrocities. What I want to highlight is a Chinese citizen— or possibly an American who spoke fluent Chinese— as a border agent of the United States. While in that position, he thought it was okay to persecute and harass a United States citizen concerning their political/religious beliefs. How long before they gain control through the idiocy of the democrats that they begin to persecute Christians, Jews and others? Only republicans seem to care about this horrific situation. I can't imagine why that is, unless the democrat-socialists realize getting rid of religion in the U.S. is going to need help from the main atheistic country of the world— China!

For those of you voting Democrat, and you have an open mind, let me prove to you when you vote for today's democrats, you are literally voting for someone who follows the plans of evil. I am not calling specific people evil. But I am going to make the exact connection from socialism to the devil. We have to realize some democrats have no idea that they are following the plans of the devil. Unfortunately, whether they choose to follow the devil, or are blissfully ignorant, the outcome is still the same. Our only hope is to speak the truth, teach facts to people and pray for God to intervene— and to stop voting for socialism.

Harris and the Violation of Medicare's Trust Fund

Old school democrats are gone. They used to care about the military, the elderly and education. No longer, except to get brainwashing tactics in place. If you care to do some research and look for socialist or communist groups, one of their tenets is to agree that lying is okay, as long as it is to further the takeover of whatever group or country they need to overthrow. Take the elderly, for example. When I did this research many, many years ago, lying was not the only bridge they were willing to cross. Getting rid of the elderly was a main desire when I read one of their sites which posted what purported to be a socialist or communist constitution. The proof of this today is what they have done to Medicare. Obama gutted Medicare of over $700 Billion dollars in order to create ObamaCare.

The Biden-Harris Admin has agreed with violating the Medicare Trust Fund by leveraging taxpayer funds to mask upcoming increases in Medicare premiums.²³ What they've done is lie, once again, to the American people. By hiding these increases, taxpayers will be paying over $21 Billion over the next three years. The democrat's Inflation Reduction Act has signed seniors up for new expenses with fewer options, according to a recent CBO analysis.²⁴ So, not only is the country facing another expensive blow-up,²⁵ they've allowed lack of security protections within the system to expose over one million

senior's personal information.²⁶

Criminal Hatch Act Violations

Rand Paul: “My colleagues and I are concerned that the Biden-Harris Administration is inappropriately using taxpayer funds to mask the defective Medicare Part D policies enacted as part of the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA) of 2022 (P.L. 117-169).” The Hatch Act prohibits political activity conducted in an official capacity. Senator Paul (R-KY) continued: “Given the IRA’s central role in the Biden-Harris Administration’s presidential campaign, these concerns warrant additional investigation.”²⁷ It seems what Senator Paul wrote to the DOJ has gone on deaf ears. No one has seen any movement by the DOJ to investigate this travesty. This seems to be a common occurrence within this Harris-Biden Democrat Administration’s policies when it comes to investigating wrongdoing by any democrat close enough to Harris.

This Democrat Harris Administration has singlehandedly tripled seniors’ Medicare premiums, while they’ve hidden that fact from the very seniors they are begging to put them back in the White House so they can continue the horror awaiting the rest of the country by their lies and criminal behavior. Once I realized the true nature of these acts, it became obvious that a lawyer like Harris— who arrested journalists when they exposed the selling of baby parts by Planned Parenthood— would go to any length to destroy a country governed by a Bill of Rights and Constitution that reflected religious and faith-filled laws.²⁸

She knows exactly what she’s doing with Medicare, seniors, transgender issues for young children, the destruction of a capitalist economy or any other number of programs that could help Americans if we had competent leadership in this present White House. If you think she is a supporter of our American economy, look at her running mate. Tim Walz has been a disaster for Minnesota, where he has been governor.²⁹ Just recently all U.S. governors were ranked for fiscal policy.

The top five were all republicans. The bottom five were democrats. But the very last one for fiscal responsibility in all fifty states was Tim Walz.³⁰ The Cato Institute ranked all 50 state governors for fiscal benefit to their state according to what they did in raising or lowering taxes and whether they increased or lowered spending. This is a biennial report, so this 2024 election is not a factor. When they started this project years ago, Walz wasn't even Harris' running mate. Groups like this do their research partially in an effort to show citizens what makes life easy and what makes it tough. It's an educational tool.

Frankly, I wish they would teach our students these policies. They will become life-long voters for fiscal responsibility and never fall prey to the lies of democrats and RINOs. In fact, someone would question the lack of fiscal responsibility the Federal Reserve just did in lowering the interest rate. I doubt the Fed would have done that in support of a republican. Take a look at this footnote to understand what I mean.³¹

Democrat-Socialistic Communism and its Connection to Satan

This is why they hate Trump: He has done everything to make America great, especially by stabilizing the economy, enforcing laws and giving the poor, middle-class, and yes, even the rich— all taxpayers— relief

Speak God, Speak

Let me share what I felt I heard from the Holy Spirit. Not long after the first assassination attempt on Trump's life in 2024, I realized from the Holy Spirit the involvement of angels. The Lord took me to Exodus 23:20-33. That previous week had been a difficult one for me. In one episode before the Lord, I kept asking Him when He was going to fulfill all the words He had spoken to me about what was going on in this nation. When was He going to answer prayer, fulfill His words and speak?

Shortly after Biden was sworn in, I received the word to stock up on necessities for four months. In March 2021, after I cried out for God to speak, He released me to write the "Suddenly" book.³⁴ It was written in three weeks, and published in September of that year. That book documents what I was told America would look like after a revival the Lord said would come quickly— in fact, suddenly— and would change the nation. Writing the book and sharing with God's people the changes our Lord will bring to the church encouraged me greatly. I had hoped it would encourage others as well.

We Still Must Choose God's Way

Unfortunately, the wonderful plans the Lord has for America— and the world— are not a fait accompli. Forces of evil in America and those linked with the communist nations of China, Russia, North Korea, Iran and others, do not want a beacon of freedom and prosperity to be an example to billions on the planet. Especially since it doesn't take billions migrating to America for them to experience American freedom and prosperity. They can work together in their own countries to reproduce the freedoms we have here. It takes work and perseverance. American freedom took work, perseverance as well as the death and sacrifice of many. You can't come here, rob our freedoms and expect to benefit— oh, wait— the democrat-socialist-communists have done just that for them in exchange to get votes. Sounds like the theft of socialism to me.

Communism-socialism-progressivism are without natural science. That's why I find it so odd that many atheists who have dedicated themselves to science can't realize the truth that socialism and communism don't follow natural science at all. It's a scam. We are in a battle with forces that don't want this or any nation to remain free. While they're in the process of destroying America, they steal benefits meant for American citizens and make deals to line their pockets. Don't get me wrong, we know American citizens betray their land and people to help themselves so they can also line their own pockets.

Around October of 2022, the Holy Spirit asked us to pray to avert war. That also came with a dream of who the Lord was talking about. I shared it with as many of the intercessors that I knew could pray effectively to avert war. This spring, the Holy Spirit told Bill that China would invade Taiwan around "election time." We are still praying to avert that, but I know our time is short. As time has gone on, there are other prophetic voices I value who have said we should store up food for close to a year. Others have talked about the instability of our banking system and the security of our money.

It is also quite possible that the socialists will try to pull off the same fraud they did in the 2020 election.³⁵ (The previous footnote is a documentary proving what nobody wants to talk about. This nation is on the precipice of becoming a banana republic. If and when you view this documentary, you will see why. In fact, the evidence used is the same evidence our military uses in shuffling and controlling our troops; it is the same exact way China employs to control its population. It is standard evidence in legal cases. So much so, that evidence used in this documentary caught a cold-case murderer, putting him on trial and convicting him. Judge for yourself; but don't hide your head and believe the lies of the media.) In late 2017 or early 2018, my husband was given a vision of a catastrophic event taking place that will impact our nation. Thereafter, our nation will finally realize the attempted takeover of it by socialists. The will of many people will be seen to stop them. Bill was not given a timeframe of when. I've been sensing a major upheaval will be instituted on America purposely in an attempt to stop Trump as well as republicans who love our country and its original legal system.

Prayer is the key in all of the above events. None of them need to take place. Prayer can avert all— or at least delay until a majority of Americans can be convinced to protect and/or provide for themselves and their neighbors. We can ask for angelic help and provision. Let me share with you the scripture verse the Lord gave me, as well as the word associated with it.

Exodus 23:20-33

I was graced many years ago with an event that included the Angel of the Lord over America. The event took place on our property; and I can tell you that God does, indeed, have specific angelic beings that protect or oversee certain regions— countries, if you will — on this planet. As the assassination event in 2024 was unfolding, the Holy Spirit let me know that an angel of some magnitude had made decisions to change the trajectory of the bullet aimed at Trump. Unfortunately, he also had to make a decision concerning the fate of other people as well. These are not decisions to be made lightly, and it really is a good thing they are not left to human determination.

The family most impacted by angelic decision was the Comparator Family. He was a father, husband and man of God, important to the community, not only as a firefighter, but no doubt in his prayer time with God. The loss to his family is incalculable. The other two gentlemen, obviously also important to their families, survived. David Dutch and James Copenhaver, aged 57 and 74, respectively; all three lived in Pennsylvania.

How is it that the angel allowed the youngest man, with a young family to be affected the most? Was it the possibility that Corey Comparator had a relationship with Jesus that would allow him straight into His arms? While the other two may not have had the same relationship? Was it his family or friends who could fill in the gaps in the community most reliably? All this is speculation. From my own opinion none of them can be spared. But in Donald Trump a nation would have mourned. The nation itself would have been lost in the event of his death at this time. There really is no one who could fill Trump's shoes right now. This is why I say humans cannot make these decisions. As a small group, we continue to keep all four victims and their families in prayer.

The First Time We See One Angel Given
Authority With Decisions Affecting a Nation

By this time in the unfolding event of the attempted assassination of Trump in 2024, I realized I needed more reliable news sources. Intercessors were contacting me and some others were sending me information. In the midst of that, the Holy Spirit was speaking with me, in that still, small voice— impressions of the heart— and what He was saying surprised me. Immediately, I sensed an angel that protected Trump, but had to make decisions for others. As soon as the Holy Spirit made me aware of that, He gave me Exodus 23:20-33. I went to the Bible immediately:

Exodus 23:20-33: “Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries. For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off. Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill. I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee. And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee. I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee. By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land. And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.”

I need to be clear and state unequivocally that I am not of the “Israel-replacement thinking.” What I mean by that is that I believe Israel is separate from the church and that the church can never replace Israel. Israel has her own destiny. I was not brought to the above scripture in order to confuse the angel that is over Israel— then or now— with the angel that is over America or any other nation. God loves Israel and has not abandoned her.

There are rules involved when interpreting the Bible. When attending Bible college you learn all about hermeneutics. That's the science of biblical interpretation. One of the rules involved is that of the First Mention Principle. It basically means that the first time we see a major event, like healing or covenant-making or many others, that first event helps us understand every single time we see the same event take place in the Bible after that first time. The rules governing that first event, governs every time thereafter that it is seen in the Bible.

The Type and Shadow of a New Nation

The Lord did not send me to Exodus to suggest that America was to replace or “take” the angel that guards Israel, still to this day. What I sensed from the Lord was His plan to give America a new chance or nation—one which will be birthed in revival and one which will be able to see clearly how the democrats and others who support socialism/communism have entrapped the nation. The type and shadow we see in Exodus 23 describing Israel is very similar. Israel had been stubborn. God sent the angel with a warning and with instructions on how to guide the new nation of Israel.

I felt as if the Lord was describing an event that will bring about a new America, one that will follow our Lord and be covered by an angel over America. One way we will be guided is in understanding our enemy. Americans have to have an understanding as to what the enemy is trying to do. Communists like Soros and others are attempting to implement change in state constitutions to destroy our duly elected-representative republic. Ohio is the first state they're attempting to use this scam.³⁶

Jesus described satan in John 10:10 as a thief: “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” Jesus makes it clear who satan is by calling him a thief. He then goes on in the rest of Chapter 10 of John to talk about Himself as the Good Shepherd, giving up His life for the sheep. I encourage you to read the Gospel of John, if you have never read it.

If you think people are genuine, but you continue to allow them to steal the food from your home, you are being deceived. This has been going on in our nation for a very long time. When we start to listen to the Holy Spirit as a nation, God will bless our land, its crops and harvests. We have many foreign adversaries, but it seems the democrats (progressives, communist-socialists) are even more dangerous.³⁷ Most people don't realize we have a whole international section within the streets of Washington, DC, which consistently advocates for foreign interference. These will be exposed, finally. They have been operating and interfering in our country for a very long time.

Many of the catastrophic events that have taken place in our nation are not natural. These will be stopped. Now, I did NOT SAY catastrophic weather events would be stopped. What I said is that the ones that can be attributed to the forces of evil will be stopped. The consistent corruption and lies told on the news will be exposed for what they really are.

I'm encouraging all of us to vote with the Bible. If we continue to be deceived by these socialist-communists, we will lose our country. If you don't believe me, maybe you'll believe movie stars that have fled California.³⁸ It's time to wake up and listen to God. He has great plans for America. Don't be sold a pack of lies by democrat-progressive-socialist-communists, along with foreign actors and laws that are alien to our soil. America is a precious jewel and their desires for her are not altruistic. God has warned us repeatedly. Whether you believe in Him or not, it's time to listen.

Excerpts from
“Will Christians and Jews Be Targets of Democrats/Socialists?”

Socialism’s definition:

“ Socialism, by definition is the philosophical, social and economic system whereby society, its money, ventures of enterprise and industry— its people and even their religion— is owned and controlled by the state government rather than by individual people or companies or religious institutions. The socialistic doctrine demands state ownership and control of the fundamental means of production and distribution of wealth. That is to be achieved by reconstructing the existing capitalist or other political system of a country through democratic and parliamentary means. It advocates nationalization of natural resources, basic industries, banking, credit facilities and public utilities, along with the education systems in a country.

“This control of the money-centers is pretty much complete. When Biden/Harris assumed the White House in 2021, they brought with them a man who is a complete communist hiding in the clothing of a socialist. That man, Antony Blinken, took control of the State Department. He didn’t wait long to put all of Obama’s cronies in office.³⁹ They didn’t wait long to implement a socialistic monetary program whereby communists and socialists could cash in on capitalistic endeavors.

“But let’s not forget about our children. Socialists won’t allow our children to know about the awesome history of our nation and its connections to the Bible. Our educational systems must now teach the nationalistic mantra of the socialists’ religion or ideologies. Jimmy Carter brought socialism to the school system in 1979 by enacting the

Department of Education. By centralizing control over key institutions of government, socialism takes over a nation. In America this was made more difficult because of its original limited and decentralized government.

“While certain institutions within government are necessary, heavy-handed bureaucratic control was never done until socialists started to work within the Federal bureaucracy. Socialism places a special emphasis on the nationalization of monopolized branches of industry and trade. Socialism advocates state ownership of corporations in which the ownership function has passed from stockholders to managerial personnel. Smaller and less vital enterprises and institutions can be left under private ownership, thereby allowing private ownership of smaller corporations, though they are heavily regulated.

“This also was not a source of control until the ideologies of socialism started to pervade throughout a generation of CEOs who value making money through capitalism, but value control through socialism. By using a socialistic ideology, many of them think we can be fooled by the “compassion” of their company’s outreach. Their “compassion” is our captivity. We would be better off if they kept their money and left societal “change” to the common man.

“Socialism’s attempted legislative takeover began in 1908 with a republican. They called it Progressivism, and it has continued today. Some believe they were at work during the Civil War, instigating even more division. While the overwhelming evidence is that Democrats refused to give slaves their freedoms, thereby triggering the war, some theorize this is when socialists in the country decided the Democrat Party was easier to infiltrate.⁴⁰ This may or may not be true, but at this point it seems to be water under the bridge. The reason why socialist/progressives use divisive issues to build a wedge between people is so they can take over a nation. The problem today is its successful coup of a duly elected president.⁴¹ This is what has made them so bold.

“So why are Christians and Jews a target? Because both groups of people built the original system of government enacted in America. This system gave the most amount of people, or the largest group of American citizens civil rights and civil liberties the world over. Those rights are God-given. Under progressivism/socialism, rights are controlled and heavily regulated by the state entity. They also believe they can be taken away or minimized by that same entity.

“Those God-given rights and liberties, especially enunciated in the first ten amendments, or our original Bill of Rights are what progressive/socialists must overcome. They cannot enact their agenda with them in place. The very foundations and ideologies fly in the face of each other. They cannot enact their laws or even gain the total power and control of the society without their own laws with their own legal system in place. That means the people who know the original system, and who will fight for it must go as well. So why should we fight for our original compact-covenant? Because biblical economics and God-given liberty demand it. Let me explain the science of both.”

Economics and the Bible:

“ Biblical economics is not capitalism, but capitalism is the only system which will allow the economy of God to work, unless you want to enact a totally biblical economy. The reason for that is because both biblical economics as well as capitalism function within natural science. Based on science, socialism will not and can never encourage a biblical economy. In fact, socialism cannot even function with natural science; but I’m getting ahead of myself.

“In the biblical economy started by God in Genesis, the Almighty gave, as rightful owner, sovereignty to Adam for the earth, as well as mankind’s own personal autonomy. Adam turned that sovereignty over to a malevolent creature, which in turn stole what he could not have gotten through legal means. In understanding God’s economy, we must see it as a first principle.

⁴¹ < 2000mules.locals.com > or < <https://rumble.com/embed/v118ytz> >

These entail original ways God made creation to function. In the beginning God gave, and what He created was made to mutually bless each thing He created. Hebrew scholars refer to the principle of mutual beneficence as a first principle because it is how God created earth to function economically.

“We know sin changed God’s original plan for mankind’s sovereignty as well as His original plan for economics and natural science. In the scientific world, natural science says that an experiment plus an observation produces resultant scientific principles. Ludwig Von Mises was an economic scientist, born in the late 1880s; he lived until 1973. He was an atheist, so biblical economics is not something he would support. His mathematical algorithm proved socialism could never follow natural science. Natural science is one of the branches of science concerned with the description, understanding and prediction of natural phenomena, based on empirical evidence from observation and experimentation. These include biology, chemistry, physics, astronomy and more. It is involved in studying phenomena or laws of the natural, physical world.⁴²

“So it would seem odd that Von Mises could be a champion for the church against socialism. He was so because he proved that socialism flies in the face of all science. By doing so, he unknowingly confirmed biblical economics. Here’s why: Both the Bible and capitalism reflect the laws of natural science, since the fall of man. Of course, the Bible’s spiritual laws disrupt all other science, but that’s another topic entirely. Within an economic system which follows natural science, everyone is allowed access— thieves, saints, greedy hoarders and generous businesspeople— all show up.

“It is much easier for people who decide to connect to God’s spiritual laws, to function within capitalistic venture systems simply because these reflect natural science laws more thoroughly. Within capitalism all can access the free market with whatever talents or gifts are available to them. Now, minimal regulation is usually needed in capitalistic systems in order to minimize theft or total lawlessness. Otherwise, even crooks are allowed into the system if they can play by the rules enacted by whatever capitalist country they are in. So the Bible is not capitalism, but it works easily within capitalistic structures because it works with, or “covenants” within natural science systems quite closely. The reason why the results for people within this system are different is because people are different. In countries which use capitalism as their economic system, people are free to engage the system as their skill and success enable them. This will, based on natural science, produce different results.”

Socialistic failures:

“ Socialists love to tell the lie that under their system everyone owns everything in common. In other words, everything the state owns, you own. This is a total lie because it flies in the face of natural science. They love to spout terms such as equity and inclusion, making it seem that they are making people equal through socialism’s thievery. People are equal to access God’s blessings and benefits. They are equal in those choices. But people are different. Natural science tells you they are. Some people work harder, others are smarter and still others get opportunities that may not be available to everyone. This is just plain nature. We should not intend to make all people have the same gifts and talents. This is why people work hard to receive a reward: their talents or other opportunities gave them a reward. What most laws do try to do is stop lawlessness, violence and illegal activities. Otherwise, natural science shows rewards and consequences. You cannot escape them.”

The Science of Ownership⁴³:

“ Let’s look at this more specifically. Among most economists, the basic science for the definition of ownership is in the having or occupying. Occupation is synonymous with ownership simply because when you occupy, you have. Within science, economists make the observation that there are two ways in which one occupies, or owns. You either gain ownership through violence (theft, deception, illegalities, etc.) or you gain ownership through peaceful, legal means.

⁴³ You can look up Ludwig Von Mises’ explanation of the science of ownership: < <https://mises.org> > It is his definition of ownership that I use here as well as in my book, “70 Years of American Captivity.” Other economists like Hayek, Friedman and others have made quick work concerning the unscientific nature of socialism. Go to <https://oll.libertyfund.org>. Click on “titles” and enter Hayek or Von Mises or Friedman and you will find titles by them. Hayek died in 1992. Friedman in 2007 and Von Mises in 1973.

“Scientifically, there are various different types of ownerships. Some different types of ownership are in consumption goods,⁴⁴ durable goods, land, rentals, stocks, bonds, et cetera. There is a difference between ownership in consumption goods and durable goods. A consumption good is used up and gone; so its ownership is in the hands of the one using it, i.e., a private owner. Thus, there can only be the one consuming a good that is used up who is the owner. If you eat an apple, you are the owner. Even if you give your apple away, or let it rot, or cut it up to share with others, in each case it is disposed of, the ownership is not divided, nor can it be. In the case of a consumption good used by a number of people, it can still only be used by the person who consumes it at that time— or in their possession, regardless of legal constructs. So even in this case the ownership is in the having, but it is still in a moment in private ownership. Scientifically, it can be nothing else, no matter what anyone calls it. Ownership/occupation are in the having.

“There is another form of ownership we must discuss in addition to consumable-goods ownership. Let’s look at production-goods or durable goods owners. If I am the Apple Corporation or a producer of iPhones, or a farmer with a large production company growing and selling apple fruit nationwide, I might have a legal piece of paper telling me my company is in the shares of a corporation, but the reality of the having or the ownership is that it is multi-faceted. On the one hand you have the one who physically has and you have the one who indirectly has. In both of these cases, the “owner” does not control the production as someone who grows food for their family does. The family farmer using their home-grown consumption goods are private owners.

“Production good ‘owners’ are controlled by end “have” consumers— both the durable product iPhone owner and the production-good, single fruit owner. They are the reason why someone makes cellphones or grows fruit trees. Even those who need trucking companies, stores and electronic parts in order to produce and sell these goods have a division of labor involved in the production of them. So the natural, scientific ownership of production goods is different from the natural ownership of consumption goods. In other words, you don't need to own shares in the Apple Corporation to own a cellphone, and you don't need to own a farm with fruit trees in order to own a piece of fruit.

⁴⁴ In an effort to make this easier, I gave different types of ownership different colors. Obviously, I can’t define each different type of ownership in our world today. But if you go to the references I suggest in the previous footnote, you can read about them, their definitions and how natural science applies to all.

“So in a society in which production goods labor is divided, no one is an exclusive owner of the means of production. It's really the consumers who are the true owners in this environment. They would be the reason why the producer enters into an economic endeavor. So they would be owners in a natural sense and the producer the administrator in a legal sense of other people's property. This is why the “having,” or the ownership is multifaceted in a production-good economy and is different from the consumption-good, private owner.

“Now, there are various different types of ownership in which the model changes, like rentals, stocks, bonds, land, etc. While one must look at various legalities in each, thus setting different parameters for ownership, the basic elements of the science still holds true. Suffice it to say within production goods, the ownership is already in common by the nature of production, with the understanding of whether it is a durable good or a consumable good.”

Socialism's Demonic Connection:

“ Let me take the observation to its conclusion. If you, no matter what anyone can define you as, own what you consume (use) as the end user as a private owner, and you own what you purchase from others as an owner in common within a system of production, then what is socialism/progressivism really offering you? What it is doing is stealing what you already own and lying to you that you can own everything else in common; but, in a very real sense, based on natural laws of science, you already do. So it is stealing into the hands of an “entity” (the state) you do not have any ownership rights in (remember ownership is in the having). The state, through socialism, is stealing what you already owned in common in a production setting and what you already owned privately in a consumption setting. Although, if you ate a piece of fruit, or other consumption good, no matter how progressives regulate that fruit, you owned it!

“Socialism is violently appropriating what it never had to begin with, now making a state entity the legal owner of what it would never, according to natural laws of science, own anyway. It’s worse than a shell game. It’s a con game on the gullible leaving them penniless. It’s also something else: it is the exact mirror image of what the devil did when he stole Adam’s sovereignty, as well as the original biblical economy God implemented in the beginning. Remember, he convinced Eve she needed what she already had and she could get it by functioning his way and not by obeying God and His immutable laws.”

When Humans Believe the devil’s Lie by Believing in Socialism:

“ The devil has no creative abilities. He is a spirit with no body. He can control nothing on the planet unless he convinces humans he can by getting them to turn over their own abilities— or to disobey laws of natural science. Humans have creative ability to birth governments, economic systems and other constructs simply because Adam was given authority to do so in the beginning. We build and birth church systems the same way. These institutions or constructs have no life of their own but reflect life, simply because humans started them. Different applications of natural science apply to them differently because they are different. Just like gravity is not mass, you still have to be careful not to come up against mass traveling at a speed which will kill you. In other words, don’t disobey laws of natural science by jumping off of buildings. You may confuse the natural science of gravity with the science of mass, but there will be no confusion to what happens when land meets mass flying through the air.”

Institutional Behavior:

“While these entities are not robots and they are not mechanical, they still need structure and parameters to function by the humans who created these institutions. They must do something else: they must function according to natural science or they will not survive. In order for the devil to control institutions, he must convince humans they are mechanical, a system with no other need but to be controlled; cold, calculated and functional: That’s it. No need for the warmth and original design they were created for and no need to function with the natural environment of natural science— or, as in the case of churches— the immutable paths instituted by God.

“There is no way for the devil to control something created by humans unless he convinces them it has no other need but to be controlled. Or, as he did with Eve, you can get “something” better by doing it his way. Remember, Adam and Eve already had God’s image. The serpent tried to convince them they could be what they already were by doing it his way, not God’s way. This is how he gets churches to keep operating with no Holy Spirit presence. This is how he deceives socialists that an economy is a thing to be mechanically engineered— that somehow they can own an economy. This is how he works. He is not creative and cannot be. He deceives to get power and then, because he is not the originator of what he steals; he functions by mechanical observation.

“Within a capitalistic economic system, because it must function by the rhythms and movements of natural science, it invites all to come; the deceiver may show up, but so does the church, individuals, businesses and others. If, while in that system you overspend or create too many cellphones, you can go bankrupt, or you can flood the market and you lose the specialized pricing you would have gotten to help you survive. Because this kind of economics works within natural science, it must work with incentives and declines. Everything that works within the laws of natural science must do that. Gravity works within natural science. Go against those laws, and watch something fall.

“Because we are in a birth and death cycle of the planet, all things which function according to natural science are going to go through a birth and death cycle— a rise and a fall— including economies. When we allow natural science to function in economic systems, recovery happens quicker. When we tinker with economies like progressives, socialists and communists do, you extend the time it takes to recover. This has been proven over and over, but never so clearly as when FDR tinkered with the Federal government, creating as close to a progressive socialistic state as he could. Economists, even the liberal ones, have proven it dramatically increased and extended the recession at that time.⁴⁵

“You also do not produce innovative products; you must steal them instead. We see this with countries like Russia and China. They must steal because they don’t place natural science incentives for the original creators to work, thus forcing innovation behind the veil of bureaucracy or ‘The State’. God created Adam with free choice and free will to rule. It is against God’s design for mankind to turn our autonomy, authority and responsibility over to an entity called ‘The State’.

“Non-believers will argue that is what we are doing by going to church. Some churches may function that way with a religious spirit, which is cult-like, but that is not what anyone should do. The definition of a religious spirit is one created by God for a purpose and plan, but then disobeys that purpose and plan and does what it desires to do. Alas, that is not how God gave us the idea of church. We are supposed to come together and advance His kingdom by each one of us moving and listening to the Holy Spirit. It is to be a celebration of Jesus each and every Sunday, breathed on by the Holy Spirit. This is part of God’s design, to be a mutual partner with Him. We can decide not to obey God. The reality is that the “state” wants no one else but the state to have authority. Let me prove that to you.”

When Everyone Else Allows the Lie to Function by Allowing Socialistic Policies Entry:

“ Under a socialistic system your children belong to the state, your health belongs to the state, your money, all assets.... I could go on, but you get the idea. This would mean that ultimately, when your will or plans for your children or health or money come in conflict with ‘the state,’ you are not going to win. Guess whose decision will be followed? Never was this more evident than with the British child, Charlie Gard.

“England is a socialistic state run by parliamentary rule that supports a weak and powerless monarchy. The child had a condition the state said was incurable, even though there were some innovations discovered in the United States which may have helped him early on in the disease cycle. His parents had gotten roughly one million dollars to take him to the United States to attempt medical treatment, thereby absolving the British State of any economic responsibilities. His parents were not allowed to do so. They weren't allowed because they were under the single-payer system in the UK — or as socialists want to do here— the Medicare-for-all system. Under these socialistic behemoths, you are not free to do as you please with your health, but must obey the decisions made for you by doctors, courts and governmental bureaucrats.”⁴⁶

How Did We Get Here?

“ Socialists are patient. It came in incremental steps. For over a century Christians ignored the roots of our original system. They didn't learn its value from the Bible, nor did they teach it to their children. In 1954, the socialistic agenda of Lyndon Johnson created the Johnson rule, partially in an attempt to hide the fact he actually lost his senate seat and was illegally placed in office. This “rule” was done to silence those telling that truth, by restricting church leaders from advocating for a specific candidate. This then rolled over again into “we can't teach original American jurisprudence or we will lose our tax-exempt status.” President Trump got rid of this rule in 2017.

“Socialism has two sets of avenues to take over a nation. One is economic and the other is social/psychological. On the economic side, once it was discovered how unscientific it is, and that it uses basic human greed and laziness to steal another's wealth, hordes of people fled its attempt at takeover in the early part of the Twentieth Century. This was also due in large part to a mathematical calculation created by the famous economist that we talked about before, Ludwig Von Mises.” *(This ends the Article's excerpts.
