

What is LaCasa?

LaCasa is a non-profit public benefit corporation and is organized for charitable purposes.

LaCasa’s purpose is:

- to foster interest and community involvement in Orangewood Children & Family Service including building projects
- to review staff funding and child requests
- to engage in fundraising activities - otherwise solicit monetary contributions to purchase items of personal property or services as may be needed to meet the needs of the children under the care of OCFS
- to solicit non-monetary gifts of personal property for the use and enjoyment of the Home
- to arrange activities for the education and enjoyment of the children at the Home

LaCasa Membership: Each member is expected to maintain good standing by paying dues as provided in the Bylaws, and by being available to work on committee in furtherance of the purposes, activities and functions of the Auxiliary unless arrangements are made with the Board.

DID YOU KNOW:
OCFS HAS IT’S OWN SCHOOL: THE WILLIAM LYON SCHOOL. WHEN CHILDREN COME TO ORANGEWOOD THEY MUST STILL ATTEND SCHOOL. SOME CHILDREN GO TO SCHOOL ON THE OCFS SITE. THEY ALSO TAKE FIELDTRIPS AND NEED FUNDS FOR ACTIVITIES THAT LACASA PROVIDES. LACASA BUDGETS FUNDS THAT GO DIRECTLY TO THE SCHOOL AND THE WONDERFUL TEACHERS. ORANGEWOOD CHILDREN & FAMILY SERVICES IS ALSO A SAFE SURRENDER BABY SITE (877) BABY-SAFE (877 222-9723). LOCATION: 401 THE CITY DRIVE, ORANGE, CA 92868
