

Want A Stronger Union?

Attend an Upcoming

Private Sector Discipline: Representing Members in Interrogations Workshop!

Would you like to learn how to build a stronger union? Do you want to know what is required to represent your brothers and sisters effectively? In this new and exciting webinar, you will review the elements of your contractual disciplinary procedure, your rights as union representatives in interrogations/investigatory interviews. Also learn how to defend the rights of members in interrogations/investigatory interviews and how to distinguish between an interrogation/investigatory interview and other supervisory discussions that do not entitle workers to union representation.

DATE:

Wednesday, June 10, 2020

TIME:

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Who Should Attend:

Private Sector Local officers and activists who are interested in learning about their disciplinary procedure and how to effectively represent members in disciplinary interrogations and investigatory interviews.

Please note:

Certified CSEA discipline representative must complete this workshop and be appointed by their local or unit president.
