Getting Started

To begin using this resource, first print pages 3 through 11. You can print them and put them in sheet protectors in a binder if you wish or laminate as desired. Page 3 consists of a simple communication board that you can use as you go along, but the communication pictures on each page should be sufficient to describe the image or answer a variety of questions. Below are some examples of questions and prompts you could ask your learner(s):

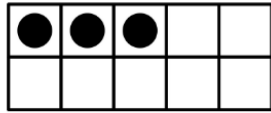

- How many ____ do you see?
- What is this?
- What color is the ____?
- Which one can you ____ with?
- Show me ____.
- Tell me about the ____.
- Where would you find ____?
- Describe the ____.
- What size is ____?
- Which thing is your favorite?
- Do you see any opposites?
- Find the one that ____.
