

OUR MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

EVENTPRO

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 – Annual Statement of Policy

Policy Owner

Daniel Potter – Director

Overview

Event Pro Security Management welcomes the Modern Slavery Act and the requirements it places upon the business in the UK to tackle and permanently eradicate all forms of slavery and human trafficking. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and are fully committed to preventing all forms of slavery and human trafficking from infesting our supply chain.

To this end Event Pro Security Management Ltd have agreed a 5-stage approach:

1. Policy

Endorsing this statement and 5 stage approach as Event Pro Security Management Ltd Anti-Slavery Policy which has been agreed by the Senior Management Team and signed off at the very highest level within the business.

2. Communication and Awareness

The statement and policy shall be communicated to all colleagues within our organisation, with periodic refreshers being posted to confirm our approach to modern slavery. In accordance with the act itself, we shall post this policy and statement on our website.

3. Training and Understanding

As well as communicating this to our staff we shall provide all those in direct involvement with the relevant training required.

4. Internal Audit

We shall periodically review our approach to our anti-slavery policy to allow us to identify any non-conformances against the act.

5. Review

This statement will be annually reviewed and updated accordingly, where appropriate and signed off by the Company Director.

Name: Daniel Potter - Director

Signed:

Date: