Martin Gelwesser

Martin Gelwesser is a freelance trombonist based in Chicago. He has performed with the Lake Shore Symphony, City Music Cleveland, the Blossom Festival Band, the Akron Winds, the Naperville Winds, and is in his third season with the Wheaton Municipal Band. In 2017 he completed a Master's degree in Orchestral Studies from The Chicago College of Performing Arts at Roosevelt University where he studied with Jay Friedman and Reed Capshaw.

Martin completed his Bachelor's Degree in Trombone Performance at the Cleveland Institute of Music where he studied with Massimo La Rosa and Randall Hawes. In 2016, Martin was awarded the Anthony P. Hopkins Memorial Scholarship for outstanding trombone students. Martin currently resides in Chicago with his fiancée and three cats: Marie, Colby-Jack, and Squid.

One more concert

August 4 - Simple Gifts

Our closing concert features music that reminds us of the joy found in the simple gifts in life and how we can share them with our audience through music. Featured will be the 50th anniversary rendition of John Zdechlik's popular "Chorale and Shaker Dance," based upon the tune "Simple Gifts" from Aaron Copland's "Appalachian Spring."

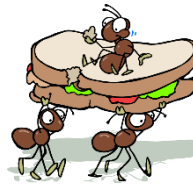

The Wheaton Municipal Band Endowment Fund...

... has been established at the DuPage Foundation, with an initial contribution of $50,000 from the JCS Fund. This is an opportunity for everyone to create a lasting legacy, supporting the Wheaton Municipal Band in perpetuity. Each year, 4% to 5% of the Endowment's balance may be distributed to the Friends of the Band to support the Band's budget.

You can donate now, or in the future, or include the Endowment in your long-term charitable giving plan. Contributions are tax-deductible.

To get forms and more information, please visit the Friends' area or contact The DuPage Foundation at 630-665-5556 or The Friends of the Band at FriendsOfTheWMB@gmail.com.
