January 17, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Friday, January 22, is the fortieth anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision in the case of Roe v. Wade that legalized the killing of unborn children by abortion. It is commemorated every year by the March for Life here at the State Capitol and in Washington. This year due to Covid, observances will be virtual. The evening before Bishop Larry will celebrate a special Mass at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Peace.

We will join him with our own Mass Thursday at 6:00PM. It will be followed by Eucharistic adoration until 8PM

As I wrote several months ago, the Columbarium project is back on track. It was discussed four years ago and for various reasons put on the back burner. The Diocese of Honolulu has contracted with Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services to plan and construct columbaria in parishes interested. Representatives of CFCS with Deacon Keith Cabiles, Chancellor of our diocese, visited on Thursday. They had preliminary drawings for St. Ann's Columbarium. It will be on the side of the church toward the school right outside the door near where the confessional is.

They will now revise the plans and get them back to us for final approval. They hope to do the construction in the spring. We will have more information on purchasing niches etc. in the near future.

Let us join our hearts and voices in prayer for our country at this time.

Sincerely in the Sacred Hearts,

Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year B

Christian stewardship begins with the call to discipleship and in today's Gospel we discover those first individuals who sought out Jesus and wanted to listen to him, learn from him and stay with him. Today, Christian stewards search out the hidden presence of Jesus in their own lives every day. They know Christ is the "Messiah" who will one day bring about a perfect restoration to a troubled world. They further understand that they are sacraments of his hidden presence in the world. Their task is to make that reality known through their own words and actions.

What is one thing we can do to be better stewards of Christ's life in us?

Next Sunday's Readings - January 24, 2021

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jonah 3:1-5, 10   1 Corinthians 7:29-31   Mark 1:14-20

---

The readings focus on the vital attributes of being a disciple of Christ.

The Gospel of John portrays these attributes as he bears witness to Jesus' first disciples. Upon seeing Jesus, John proclaims, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The lamb is a reference to the Jewish sacrificial offering at Passover and reveals Jesus as Savior. Once the two that were with John heard this, they immediately followed Jesus. Jesus turned to them and asked, "What are you looking for?" They responded with, "Rabbi, where are you staying?"

Imagine Jesus asking you, "What are you looking for?" We might respond with answers like a better job, more kids, retirement, or any number of things that we think will make our lives better. The things we seek may be righteous, but as disciples of Christ, we should first and foremost seek the Kingdom of God. If we strive to respond to Jesus' question in the same way the first disciples responded, essentially by asking, "Where are you, Lord?" then we will not be disappointed with the outcome.

Our story of Jesus' first disciples concludes with Andrew intentionally sharing the Good News of Christ to his brother Simon Peter. Andrew had the gift of meeting the Lord and did not hoard it to himself. Instead, he sought his brother and proclaimed what he had experienced, which serves as a reminder for us. Our calling is to be missionary disciples — to seek the Lord and share what we have found. Our faith is a gift! We should strive to share this gift with others.

Next Week's Collection

Church in Latin America

The Collection for the Church in Latin America supports pastoral programs as awarded by the Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Projects include the work of evangelization, formation of laity, religious and seminarians, as well as youth ministry and catechesis. Funding is limited to programmatic expenses and excludes building construction except in cases of emergency.

Black and Indian Mission

Mandated by the III Plenary Council in 1884, the 125- year-old National Collection for Black and Indian people continues as the embodiment of the Church's concern for evangelizing the Black and Indian peoples of the United States. The funds are distributed as grants to dioceses throughout the United States, supporting and strengthening evangelization programs which otherwise would cease. The Collection was formerly known as The Black and Indian Home Mission Collection.

INTO THE BREACH

The series, entitled "Into the Breach", is a call to battle for Catholic men that urges us to embrace masculine virtues in a world in crisis. Into the Breach seeks to answer the question of what it means to be a man, and how to live as a man, in today's world.

Into the Breach is produced by the Knights of Columbus, but this series is being provided to inspire men of all ages, and in all walks of life. You do not need to be a Knight to attend, and this is in no way a recruitment effort. It's just a chance for men to meet with other men, to explore some of the most important aspects of being a man in light of our Catholic faith.

The series will take place at 7pm on six consecutive Tuesdays, from January 19th to February 23rd, at St. Ann Church. Register by email: events@saintannahawaii.org or text 808-235-4051.

Men of St. Ann, we hope you will consider joining us as we together answer the call to battle, and step Into the Breach!

Please visit St. Ann website at saintannahawaii.org for more information and a video preview.

St. Ann's Mission Statement (1988, revised 1991)
The purpose of St. Ann Parish is to be a community of Catholics responsibly committed in Word and Action to the proclamation and celebration of the Gospel.

Parish Goals:

- To grow in our knowledge and understanding of our faith commitment.
- To better celebrate our faith life in community.
- To increase the number of resource people by training more members of the faith community in roles of leadership.
- To deepen our proclamation of the Gospel through loving service to our neighbor.
- To evaluate the implementation of these goals once each year in the light of the mission statement.

For Bulletin Notices: Please email or submit in writing to the Rectory by Wednesday at 12noon at rectory@saintannahawaii.org
