HOLIDAZZLE TOURS

10-12, NETHAJI ROAD, MADURAI

WWW.HOLIDAZZLETOURS.COM

Ladakh, often known as the “town of Qualcomm,” is one of India’s most distinctive and delightful areas. For adventurers from all over the world, this vast and sparsely inhabited region is a dream come true. The delight that envelops when riders approach Leh by one of the ways is magnificent. One begins to smile for no apparent reason. The sound of all the Bullets rumbling around in the streets of Leh throughout the season will undoubtedly give an impression as if the riders in the Mecca of motorcyclists. And the minute after reaching the summit of Khardungla, everything else in one’s life appears to fade into the background. Then there’s the journey to Pangong Tso, arguably the world’s most relaxing lake. Simply sitting at the edge of that lake, alone, reveals a whole new aspect.

Ladakh’s highest passes and twisting roads attract passionate riders. With the well-planned Leh Ladakh Bike Tour, which may lead oneself to bask in the bliss of the mountains. The meticulously created tour package, allows bikers to be the most trusted companion on an exciting adventure. Ladakh bike tour will cherish with memories of lifetime by providing with the ultimate adventure. The cruise will go all the way through rocky terrain, blue waters, top tourist destinations, tranquil monasteries, and more, in addition to providing with a once-in-a-lifetime ride. The path leading to Ladakh is the same one followed by caravans on their way to the Silk Route centuries ago. If that wasn't impressive enough, the region's roadways are only open four months of the year, with the remaining eight months buried in snow.

HOW TO PREPARE FOR LADAKH BIKE TRIP

- Full Face Helmet with clear Visor: Get a good quality full face helmet for the ride to protect you from the cold winds while riding.
- Riding Gloves: Gloves is necessary for the ride, as after a while you might feel cold, and if not it gives a good grip and protect your hands in case you fall down.
- Elbow and Knee Guard: If you are not comfortable wearing a riding jacket and riding pants, the least you can do is wear elbow and knee guards.
- Riding Shoes: Make sure you wear riding shoes, and if not then gumboots with thermal socks will serve the purpose.
- Sunscreen Lotion: UV rays at high altitude keeps getting harsh which is quite damaging to the skin. Carry a plus SPF 30, as you don't want a bad tan.
- Water Bottle: It is necessary to drink 4-5 litres of water at high altitude to avoid dehydration. As it will later might result to AMS (Altitude Mountain Sickness) symptoms like nausea, vomiting, headache and burning of eyes. So keep your body hydrated at all times.

- Clothing: Always dress like an onion (dress in layers) at high altitude, it is better than a thick woollen. Carry at least 2-3 spare shirts, with 1 pair of riding pants, and 1 pair of jeans.
- Cap: Carry a cap to keep yourself protected from the harsh winds while riding. It will protect your forehead, ears and even neck.
- Driving license: This goes without saying,
- carry your DL at all times as it required to show at certain checkpoints.
