NAS

90% of low-income African-American and Latino students in high-poverty schools are not reading at grade level by fourth grade.

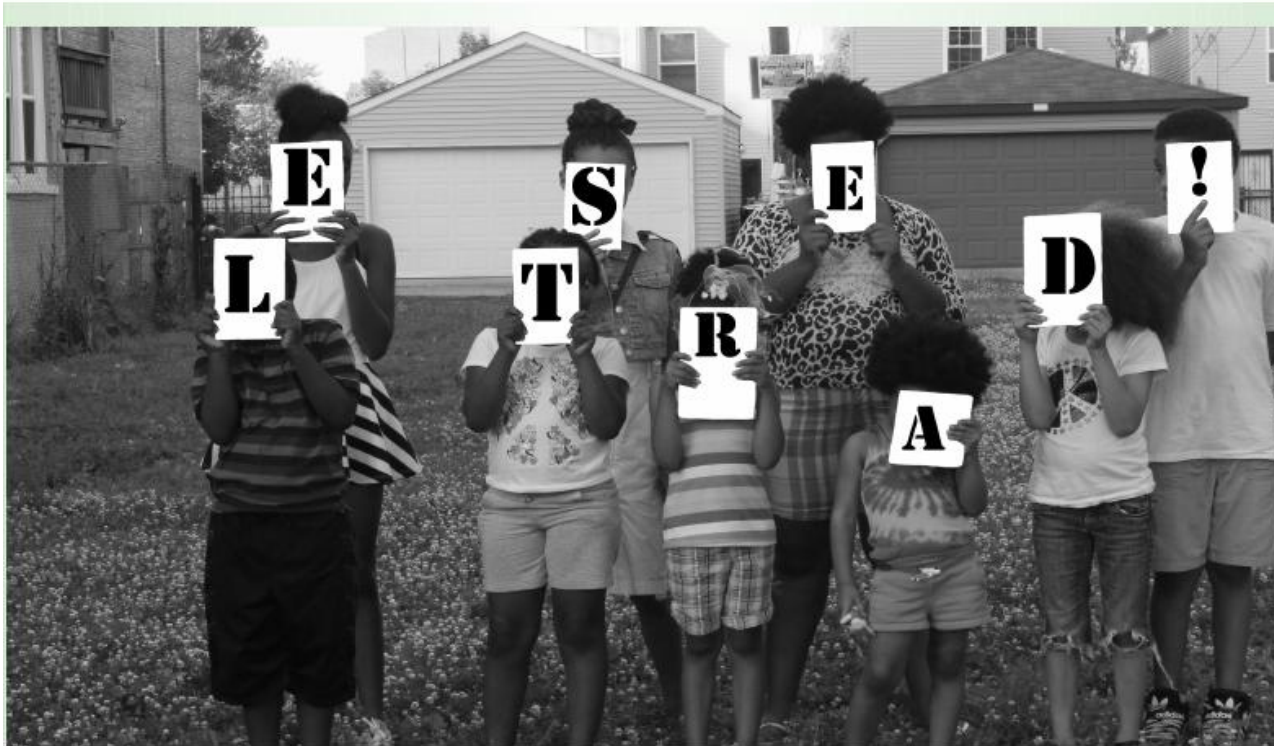

83% of low-income African-American students in schools with moderate to low levels of poverty do not reach the reading goals.

Did you know.....

illiteracy and crime are closely related?

The Department of Justice states,

"The link between academic failure and delinquency, violence, and crime is welded to reading failure." Over 70% of inmates in America's prisons cannot read above a fourth grade level.
