(Coach-Client Contract)

Contract for Coaching Session

I wish to receive coaching services from Denise Wilkins

I understand that these coaching sessions do not constitute clinical supervision and that I remain completely responsible – ethically and legally – for the decisions I make in my own clinical case situations. My coach will provide me with an opportunity to discuss personal and career issues about which she may have some expertise, and she may help me consider options for responding.

I also understand that although we may sometimes need to discuss personal issues that may be relevant to my personal life, these sessions do not constitute psychotherapy.

I understand the potential limits of the confidentiality of this relationship. However, I understand that if I provide identifiable information about a situation regarding which my coach has an ethical or legal obligation to report confidential information, she will inform me at the time and will give me the opportunity to make the report myself.

I understand that if my coach believes she has a potential conflict of interest with me, that she will notify me of that fact immediately.
