2025 Row, Row, Row Your Cardboard Boat

The Row, Row, Row Your Cardboard Boat event, is one of the largest attended activities we have at the Caseville "Cheeseburger Festival".

It is a race between homemade boats rowing around a marked circular course. The water is only about 2-3 feet deep. The course is at the Caseville County Beach, and will be held at 4 p.m. on Saturday, August 17, 2025. The prizes are minimal, but the fun is great. The entry fee is $5.00. All boats with participants (13 and older) are required to wear the 2025 Cheeseburger button that admits the holder to all the fun activities, concerts, etc. for the festival. There were over 50 seaworthy boat creations that participated in the 2024 races and thousands of spectators. Everyone enjoyed it, and they are looking forward to this year's competition.

The rules below are quoted from the official sign-up sheet and are as follows:

"Vessels must be constructed using only cardboard and duct tape. I will be disqualified if I don't get this right the first time. The use of wax, paraffin, water proof paint, or any kind of paint, (not allowed). Vaseline or any other waterproofing agent is prohibited. I understand that all participants must wear a PFD (life jacket) and the craft must be self-propelled. If I am under the age of 18, a parent or guardian must sign my registration form."

* Sponsors have the right to make up the rules as they go along. Extremely seaworthy crafts may either be inspected for illegal materials (chain saws could be involved) or asked to paddle to Charity Island. Entries in multiple heats (more than 3) are prohibited."

Boats have ranged from simple boxes, to ones made from actual row-boat plans. Some are decorated with colored duct tape or taped on creations. Many are very creative and are awarded for their creativity. Minimum painted decorations may be tolerated, as long as there is no way to construe it as waterproofing (above the waterline).

REMEMBER THIS IS A FAMILY EVENT: TACKY BUT TASTEFUL IS THE GUIDLINE.
THE COMMITTEE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REMOVE ANY ENTRY.

We are looking forward to seeing you, and hope you have a great time in Caseville.
