During the rapidly evolving situation surrounding the COVID-19 outbreak, we are committed to continuing our important work of eliminating food waste and alleviating hunger for those in need. We're continuing to connect prepared food to nonprofit agencies serving those in need, including homeless individuals and children. Compassion is one of Waste Not's core values, so we recognize that while social distancing practices like school closures increase safety, families who are on the brink of poverty are disproportionately impacted. As a result, our nonprofit partners are experiencing additional pressure to serve their clients who are in need of more food.	Cash donations, volunteer drivers. If you are food business with excess food to donate, please contact Melinda at 602-721-3454 or mnapoli@unitedfoodbank.org .
