SYNOD REFLECTION BOOK

Please make sure to pick up the, Spreading the Fire of God's Love Reflection Booklet, if you haven't already done so. All parishioners from teens on up should have one. This is the first step in our participation of the Diocese Synod. If you aren't sure how to use it, call the office for instruction, speak with Father Don or any other parishioner.

BOOK STUDY: RETURN

There is a continuation for the book study of Return. The group will meet every other Tuesday at 6:00 pm in Letko Hall for 7 sessions. If you signed up for these sessions, please pick up your study guide in the back of the church if you haven't already done so. If you are interested in joining, there is one extra book available.

UPCOMING SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Nearly 38 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face in bringing permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

BLESSED MOTHER STATUE

Thank you to John Strange for installing our new outdoor statue of Mary. She was donated by a family in Memory of their son Paul C. Powers. Be sure to take a look at her located outside between the church and the Parish office.

CHRISTMAS MARKET & PORT-A-PIT CHICKEN

Be sure to mark your calendars for St. Patrick’s Christmas Market on Saturday December 6th in Letko Hall. Along with the market, there will be Port-A-Pit chicken for sale. You can purchase tickets ahead of time before and after all masses, or at the Parish office. 1/2 chicken is $10 and Pit-Tatoes are $4. Thank you to the Parish Council for working so hard to organize this event!

NO GOOD DEED GOES UNPUNISHED

When Jesus rose from the dead, he showed his disciples that even death will be overcome by God. In today’s Gospel, he expands that to include most of the bad things that can happen to both non-believers and disciples alike. Starting with the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, Jesus mentions most of the scary things that people thought would bring the end of the world. He gives two pieces of advice. First, don’t be fooled by anyone who says this is the end or who claims to be Jesus. When Jesus comes again, there will be no doubt about who it is. Then, don’t be terrified by natural disasters or wars. As disciples, we hope we would respond to disasters not with fear, but with love. Believers can voluntarily help those affected, comfort the survivors, or help rebuild their homes or schools. People have welcomed strangers into their homes after a flood or hurricane has destroyed a neighborhood. There is a saying that “no good deed goes unpunished.” Jesus never says that his disciples would be given awards for their acts of charity. In the second half of the Gospel, he says that his disciples would be persecuted, hated, and even betrayed by their own families. Jesus has advice for that situation, too. He tells us “not to prepare your defense,” but to let him give us the words. I suspect that he means not to worry about what you might say, lest you become scared speechless. If you let him, Jesus will “prepare” you with the scripture readings, your pastor’s homilies, and your own prayer life. All of these can help open us to the gifts of the Spirit, who helps us proclaim our faith without fear.
