Dear Pastor, My Father says I should learn the Ten Commandments, but I don't think I want to because we have enough rules already in my house. Joshua Age 10

STAMP PRICES GOING UP

"The USPS announced on April 9 that it has filed notice with the Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) of mailing services to make price changes, a 7.4 percent increase, to take effect on July 13.

The change, if approved, would raise the price of a First-Class stamp from 73 cents to 78 cents. The additional-ounce price for single-piece letters will increase from 28 cents to 29 cents."

FIRST COMMUNION

Congratulations to our students receiving their 1st Holy Communion at the 10:30 Mass on April 27th.

They are: Ava Aguilar, Nakiya Richards, Logan Shoemake, and Lucas Turner. We pray for them as they continue their spiritual growth as they receive Jesus in the bread and wine.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA (1347-1380) April 29

Imagine the pope receiving a young woman still in her twenties who addresses him as "my sweet Christ on earth," then orders: "Get back to Rome where you belong!" Amazingly, Gregory XI complied! Yet this was but one astonishing incident in the extraordinary life of Catherine of Siena, a truly unique medieval woman. Youngest of twenty-five children, Catherine refused marriage and became a Dominican Tertiary at sixteen, cloistering herself at home in contemplative prayer, austere penances, and mystical experiences, culminating in "spiritual espousal" to Christ. Then, incarnating the Dominican ideal of "passing on to others the fruits of contemplation," Catherine left her solitude to care for the poor, nurse the sick, comfort the dying, and bury the dead. Increasingly renowned for converting souls and healing bodies, she was sought after to broker peace during civil wars and Church schisms. All this, and like Jesus, whom she called "my "Divine Spouse," she died at thirty-three! Four hundred letters and her spiritual classic The Dialogue inspired Paul VI to name her, together with Teresa of Ávila, the first women "doctors of the Church."
