Howard Hanna | Coach Realtors Announces Acquisition of Prime Properties Long Island

Long Island, NY — Howard Hanna | Coach Realtors today announced the acquisition of Prime Properties Long Island, a distinguished independent brokerage founded in 2014 by Barbara Wanamaker and Amy Girimonti. Located in Huntington, New York, Prime Properties has earned a reputation for exceptional client service, a collaborative agent culture, and deep community commitment—qualities that align seamlessly with the Howard Hanna | Coach Realtors mission.

With this acquisition, Howard Hanna | Coach Realtors strengthens its presence throughout Long Island while integrating a 16-person team known for its integrity, professionalism, and local expertise.

“We believe that this acquisition benefits HHCR by allowing us to grow market share throughout Long Island. We in return will provide Amy Girimonti and her team more of the tools and resources required to meet client expectations in this increasingly changing real estate market,” said Whitney LaCosta, President of Howard Hanna | Coach Realtors. “We are proud to welcome Prime Properties Long Island into the HHCR family.”

“This partnership felt right because it’s about people and values,” stated Amy Girimonti, Owner/Broker of Prime Properties. “Howard Hanna understands family—both in life and in real estate. More importantly this alignment allows our agents to continue doing what they do best while gaining long-term support from a world class company”

The acquisition comes during a period of remarkable expansion for Howard Hanna Real Estate Services across New York State. In just ten years since entering the Empire State, the company has become the largest brokerage in the state by both agent count and homes sold—an achievement driven by strategic partnerships, market expertise, and a relentless focus on client care.
