HAPPY Valentine's Day

Sacred Heart of Jesus Immaculate Heart of Mary

O United Hearts of Jesus and Mary, Thou art all grace, all mercy, all love. Let my heart be joined to Thine, so that my every need is present in Thy Holy Hearts. Keep me always in this union and I beseech Thee, never allow me to be separated from Thine!

Prayers of the Roman Catholic Church Breviary / Divine Office / Liturgy of the Hours

All three names refer to the same reality, the official prayer of the Church offered at various times of the day in order to sanctify it. Clergy and religious have a canonical obligation to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as official representatives of the Church. Increasingly, the laity are also praying it, though they do not do so in the name of the Church.

- * Liturgy of the Hours - From liturgia horarium (L) and the Greek litourgia, a service performed by an official.
- *Divine Office - From officium divina (L.), a divine service or duty.
- *Breviary - From breviarium (L.), a compendium (of the canonical hours).
- *The Divine Office is also called the Opus Dei (Work of God).

The Divine Office owes its remote origin to the inspiration of the Old Covenant.

God commanded the Aaronic priests (c.1280 BC) to offer a morning and evening sacrifice (Ex. 29:38-29). Through the centuries, it has been changed and updated to its present configuration. It is the official prayers of the Roman Catholic Church. It is also a good habit to practice as the laity, a form of prayer that is structured, easy to recite and helping us to get into a good daily prayer habit.

Especially for those who have difficulty speaking to God, or looking for a good consistent form of prayer.

These are two popular APP's that are simple to load onto your phone and easy to use.
