We continue to work diligently to enhance the beauty of our church and to repair areas that need attention.

Current projects include:

Neighbors to the East

St. Ann's in Kosciusko is hosting a Day of Prayer for Rain.

Please join us on Sunday, January 18th, for Eucharistic Adoration from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., followed by the Rosary at 5:00 p.m., as we pray for rain and relief from the ongoing drought.

So often we find ourselves grumbling and complaining about the weather. This is a beautiful opportunity to lift our concerns to God and ask for His mercy. It's Sunday—the Lord's Day. Let us give just one hour in prayer for something that means so much to all of us right now: relief from the drought.

If you're driving by the church, please feel free to stop in. We hope to keep this prayer vigil going continuously throughout the day.

And don't forget to bring your umbrella! If we have faith the size of a mustard seed, then we must believe.

Calling All Green Thumbs!

If you enjoy bringing plants back to life, our poinsettias are now available. They have been on "life support" throughout the Christmas season, enduring the various stages of heat and cold in the church.

We would like to sincerely thank the wonderful ladies who lovingly cared for them during this time. They did an amazing job, and we are very grateful for their dedication.

The poinsettias are now ready for a new home. Please feel free to take as many as you would like and give them some extra love!

Mass Intentions for This Coming Week

As Father will be out of town this coming week, Communion Services will be celebrated, Tuesday thru Friday. If you wish to have your Mass intention transferred to another day when Mass will be offered, please contact the church office.

Please be assured that intentions are mentioned and prayed for even when a Communion Service is held. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Jubilee Year of Mercy Comes to A Close

Pope Leo XIV on Tuesday closed the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica, bringing the ordinary holy year to an end — a time of grace that invited Catholics to conversion, reconciliation, and hope.

The pontiff processed toward the Holy Door as the antiphon "O clavis David" was sung. Reaching the threshold, he knelt before the door and remained for a few minutes in silent prayer. He then rose and, at 9:41 a.m., pushed shut the two large bronze doors — a gesture that visibly marked the end of the jubilee season.

"With thankful hearts we now prepare to close this Holy Door, crossed by a multitude of faithful, certain that the Good Shepherd always keeps the door of his heart open to welcome us whenever we feel weary and oppressed," Leo XIV said in an address before the concluding gesture that ended the ecclesial event, ordinarily held every 25 years to offer the faithful the possibility of obtaining a plenary indulgence.

With these words, Leo XIV emphasized that even though the jubilee has ended, God's mercy remains ever open to believers.
