The 2025–26 school year has wrapped up, and while Vacation Bible School is planned for the week of June 22, we are also beginning preparations for the 2026–27 Faith Formation year. We are very grateful that most of our volunteers plan to return, but there are still opportunities for new faces to become involved during the 3:30, 5:30, and 7:00 class times.

If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information, please contact Becky Raabe at 830-484-3303 or 830-391-1015.

Cross Catholic Outreach – Thank You

Last weekend, we were blessed to welcome a visiting priest from Cross Catholic Outreach.

Thank you, Father Tom, for visiting our parish.

Now more than ever, the poor in developing countries are in desperate need of food, clean water, shelter, medical care, and spiritual nourishment. Thanks to your generosity and support, our parish is helping to meet some of these critical needs. Father Tom would also like to extend his heartfelt thanks to everyone. He greatly enjoyed his visit and was deeply appreciative of the warm welcome and kindness he received from our parish community.

Thank you for your continued generosity and prayers.

Background on the Gospel Reading

We read today's Gospel in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission.

Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

This section of Matthew's Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew's intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today. In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering can not be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

Calling All Men – Opportunity to Show Off Your Muscles!

The Funeral Committee is in need of some male volunteers to assist with funeral lunch preparations. We could use help setting up and taking down chairs, as well as cooking sausage for funeral meals. We have an outdoor burner and prefer to cook the sausage outside, since cooking indoors can make the kitchen quite warm and leave the smell lingering in the hall for days. If you're willing to lend a hand, this is a great opportunity to help serve our parish community. If you are interested, please contact Carolyn Krawietz at (830) 484-3329. She will add your name to the volunteer call list and notify you when assistance is needed for a funeral.

Hint, hint... we have one this Tuesday!

Thank you for considering this important ministry of service.

Happy Father's Day

On this beautiful Sunday don't forget to thank God for the Fathers we celebrate today.

These men are not only our fathers, but also our grandfathers, uncles, neighbors, teachers, coaches, and priests. Whether living or deceased we remember them today for their tireless dedication, love, and especially for our faith formation. As we celebrate Father's Day, remember to also thank priests for their gift of spiritual fatherhood. They have dedicated their lives to taking care of us spiritually through prayer, the Sacraments, teaching, spiritual counsel, and personal witness.
