Prayer for Our Fundraiser

Heavenly Father,

As we embark on this event, we seek your divine blessing for both success and impact. May your favor rest upon us, guiding us toward an event that leaves a lasting positive effect on all who participate.

Grant us the wisdom and inspiration to plan and execute this event with excellence. May it touch the hearts and minds of attendees, inspiring them to positive actions and growth.

We commit this event into your hands, Lord, and we pray that it may be a source of success and impact beyond our imagination. In your name, we pray.
Amen.

Seton Home Donations Blessings beyond Belief

The Seton Home has informed us that donations have filled their store rooms to capacity and will not be accepting any additional donations at this time. They would like to take this opportunity to thank all who donated to their cause. The support and generosity that you have shown them throughout the years has been such a blessing. Please keep them in your prayers and by all means please continue to donate to other charities of your choice. A giving heart is a Godly heart.

"THIS WEEKEND:
June-21-22-2025
Land of Peace"

In these challenging times, we invite you to a special event next weekend. Following all Masses, Noel Alshomali from Land of Peace, a not-for-profit organization will be with us to shed light on the struggles faced by Christians in the Holy Land. This mission aims to bring hope and support to Christian families and churches in the Middle East, who are enduring continuous violence and a decline in tourism. Your participation can help make a profound difference. Available for purchase will be religious articles made from Olive Wood, a material native to the Holy Land and Bethlehem. These items, including crucifixes and rosaries, offer a tangible connection to a land that holds deep spiritual significance. We encourage you to join us and support this meaningful cause.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology. The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, "Who is this about whom I hear such things?" and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: "You are the Messiah of God." In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead, Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.

Liturgical Minister Formation Workshop

St. Joseph Catholic Church in Nixon is hosting a workshop for current and new Lectors & Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. If you are interested in becoming a part of our Liturgy Ministry or would like to understand more about the beauty of ministering, please register at archsa.regfox.com/liturgical-formation or scan the QR Code on the flyer displayed on the bulletin board. Saturday, June 28th from 9:00am - 12:00pm. Kristopher Seaman will be the Keynote Speaker.

Flowers on the Altar

The beautiful array of flowers on the Altar were donated by Erasmo & Ophelia Flores, Roy & Cathy Frazier and Robert & Annette Pruski in Celebration of their Wedding Anniversaries and Thanksgiving for the many wonderful years of Wedded Bliss. Congratulations to our couples and God Bless on your accomplishments.

CDA Court Anna Poth

has crafted yet another beautiful quilt for the benefit raffle. Quilt raffle tickets can be purchased before and after weekend Masses. CDA members are asked to sign up to sell quilt tickets at weekend Masses. Signup sheet is on the bulletin board. All help is greatly appreciated.

St. Anthony's Men's Club in Elmendorf is sponsoring a trip to the Kickapoo Casino in Eagle Pass TX. Cost is $50 per person. Tuesday, July 15th. More information can be found on the flyer posted on the bulletin board.
