Second Sunday of Lent:

O God, who have commanded us to listen to your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly by your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

A Look at Today's Readings

What does the word transfiguration really mean? The dictionary defines it as "a striking change in appearance or character or circumstances." But have you ever actually used that word in everyday conversation? If you said your friend or spouse was "transfigured" when stepping out of the hair salon, would that sound like a compliment – or just confusing?

In ordinary usage, transfiguration is a word we almost never use. In fact, we usually apply it to only one person: Jesus Christ.

The Second Sunday of Lent focuses on the Transfiguration of Jesus – when human nature meets God, when the temporal meets the eternal. For the disciples, this experience strengthened their faith and prepared them for the suffering and death their Master would soon endure. For us, it serves as a glimpse of the resurrection glory that awaits us at the end of our own life's journey. Let's look briefly at today's readings.

In the First Reading from Genesis, God says to Abram:

Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you... All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you.

God calls Abram out of what is familiar and comfortable and into an unknown future, promising blessing and greatness. Faith begins with trust.

In the Second Letter to Timothy, we hear:

He saved us and called us to a holy life... through Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

God calls us not because of our merits, but because of his grace – and with the promise of life beyond death.

Finally, in the Gospel from Matthew, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up the mountain. They encounter Moses and Elijah, and God speaks:

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.

Overwhelmed, the disciples fall to the ground in fear. But Jesus touches them and says, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

Lent is our invitation to climb the mountain to face challenge, fear, and self-examination – and to discover who Jesus truly is. We may feel unworthy or afraid in God's presence, but Jesus meets us in our humanity, touches us, and invites us to rise.

This Lent, let us allow ourselves to be transformed by Christ. How? God gives us the answer in three simple words: "Listen to him."

Sunday Funny

An engineer dies and reports to the Pearly Gates. Saint Peter checks his dossier and not seeing his name there, accidentally sends him to Hell. It doesn't take long before the engineer becomes rather dissatisfied with the level of comfort in Hell.

He soon begins to design and build improvements. Shortly thereafter, Hell has air conditioning, flush toilets and escalators. Needless to say, the engineer is a pretty popular guy.

One day, God calls Satan and says: "So, how are things in Hell?"

Satan replies: "Hey, things are going great. We've got air conditioning, flush toilets, and escalators. And there's no telling what this engineer is going to come up with next."

"What!" God exclaims: "You've got an engineer? That's a mistake - he should never have been sent to Hell. Send him to me."

"Not a chance," Satan replies: "I like having an engineer on the staff, and I'm keeping him!"

God insists: "Send him back or I'll sue."

Satan laughs uproariously and answers: "Yeah, right. And where are you going to get a lawyer?"

To all of those who lead us in musical worship:

Thank you. We want to thank you from the depths of our hearts. Thank you for your continual pursuit of bettering your God-given talent. Thank you for sharing your abilities with us. Thank you for not letting fear or nerves get in the way. I'm sure there are times when you just really don't want to. Thanks for getting up there even then. For stepping out of your comfort zone and using the gifts you've been given.

Thank you for not singing at us, but worshipping with us. Thank you for worshipping and not performing. For making those precious few minutes not about you, but about our God. You realize that this ability is only thanks to God, the giver of all good things. You're an inspiration to us all on how we should humbly steward the talents and abilities we have been given.

Thank you for giving us a space to praise the One who created it all. For choosing songs with lyrics that are filled with the truth of God's Word. Songs that will stick with us for days, months, and years to come, so that every time we think of them, we will be pointed back to Christ.

Most importantly, thank you for giving us a little glimpse of what eternity in heaven will look like. If only for a moment, a time to humbly sing praises and bring honor to the only One worthy of it.

Psalm 104:33: "I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being".
