Meow, Meow

Anyone interested in a mama cat and two kittens. The mama cat is our church cat that lives under the church. But her and the babies are helping themselves to Father's cat food now. Father really doesn't want a bunch of cats around. If anyone is interested, bring a carrier. Sometimes the babies are asleep in the flower pot on the front porch of the Rectory. Let us know if you are interested or just come by and grab them. Don't take the black and white cat. That is actually Father's cat.
Thank you.

Crowning of Mary May 9th at the 9:30 AM Mass

We look forward to celebrating the Crowning of Mary during the 9:30 AM Mass on May 9th.

Unfortunately, our newly refurbished statue of Mary will not arrive in time for the coronation, as it is scheduled for delivery the following week. In the meantime, we will be using a smaller replica graciously borrowed from the Catholic Daughters. If anyone has a larger statue we may borrow for the ceremony, please let us know.

First Communion
children are invited to wear their beautiful First Communion attire. They will process in ahead of Father Damian and the altar servers, and each child will be given a flower to present to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

We are also seeking a young lady and gentleman of high school age who would be honored to place the crown on Mary's head. Church attire is required. Please contact Becky Raabe if you are interested in this very special opportunity.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples don't know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father.

Philip then makes a request that challenges Jesus' words. Philip wants Jesus to show the Father to the disciples. Recall that Jesus has just told his disciples, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." As a good teacher, Jesus responds to Philip by repeating and elaborating on what he has just told the disciples: they have seen and known Jesus, so they have seen and known the Father. Then Jesus offers another reassurance about his departure: because of faith in God and in Jesus, the disciples will do the work that Jesus has done and more.

The connection between Jesus and his Father, between Jesus' work and the work of the Father, is made clear in today's Gospel. Jesus is in the Father, and God the Father is in Jesus. As God spoke his name to Moses, "I am," so too Jesus speaks his name to his disciples: "I am the way and the truth and the life."

The revelation of the Trinity is completed in the passage that follows today's reading, and it is the Gospel for next Sunday. Because Jesus goes away, the Father will send in Jesus' name the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will continue the work of the Father and of Jesus.
