Chuckle of the Day

The new priest is nervous about hearing confessions, so he asks an older priest to sit in on his sessions. The new priest hears several confessions, then the old priest asks him to step out of the confessional for a few suggestions.

The old priest suggests, "Cross your arms over your chest and rub your chin with one hand." The new priest tries this. The old priest suggests, "Try saying things like, 'I see, yes, go on, I understand, and how did you feel about that?'"

The new priest repeats those things, trying them out. The old priest says, "Now, don't you think that's a little better than slapping your knee and saying, 'No way! What happened next?'"

Cemetery Cleanup Day
We will provide TACO's as well as water and soda's that morning.

Feed them and they will come.
Hopefully!!!!!!As we prepare for All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, we invite you to join us for Cemetery Cleanup Day on Saturday, October 18th, beginning at 8:00 AM at the cemetery. We're hoping for some cooler weather to accompany us. All helping hands are welcome and appreciated. Please bring any tools or supplies you can—rakes, gloves, trimmers, etc. (trash bags will be provided)—as we work together to tidy and honor the final resting place of our Dearly Departed. Your time, effort, and support mean so much. Thank you for helping us maintain a peaceful and beautiful space for our loved ones.

October Prayer for Peace

During the month of October, in response to the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV's request, we will join together in a special way to pray for peace. The Pope has asked the faithful to "pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity."

In answer to this call, we will recite his Prayer for Peace after Communion at each Mass throughout October. The prayer can be found on the front cover of the missalette. Please join us as we invoke the Holy Spirit to bring an end to all evil and to fill our world with lasting peace.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE FINAL BLESSING AT MASS

The silence after Communion fades. The tabernacle is closed. The people stand. And the priest, who once stood at the altar as Christ the Victim, now turns as Christ the Shepherd...And lifts his hand. "The Lord be with you..." THIS IS NOT

A FAREWELL, IT'S A COMMISSIONING

The final blessing is not the end of something holy, It is the beginning of something divine. It is Christ saying: "You have received Me. Now go carry Me to the world." "AS THE FATHER HAS SENT ME..." Jesus once said: "As the Father has sent Me, so I send you."— John 20:21

At the end of every Mass, that command is fulfilled. You came to Mass as a hungry beggar. You leave as an ambassador of Heaven. THE BLESSING IS REAL POWER. When the priest extends his hand in blessing, it is not symbolic. He blesses in persona Christi, in the Person of Christ.

Through him, Christ blesses you: To strengthen your soul, To guard you against temptation, To preserve the grace you just received, And to send you forth in peace "GO FORTH, THE MASS IS ENDED..." These words are not a dismissal. They are a mission statement. "Go forth in peace." "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." Each one says:

You have encountered the Lamb. Now become His witness. You have received Christ. Now become Christ to the world. YOU BECOME A LIVING ALTAR After the final blessing, the Church does not say, "Now return to your normal life." No. She says: "Take this Light. Take this Fire. Take this Jesus... into your conversations, your job, your family, your streets." You are now the living altar, the mobile tabernacle, the walking Gospel. SO, Next time the priest lifts his hand and says: "May Almighty God bless you..." Don't just bow your head. Receive it like armor. Wear it like glory. Live it like fire. Because that final blessing is not a goodbye... It is the launch of saints. You were fed by Heaven so that you could feed the hungry. You were loved by Christ so you can go love like Christ.

God bless you 🙏

Pastor Appreciation Day

Father Damian, when you first arrived at our parish, we saw a very young priest and wondered, "Is this the new shepherd of our flock?" We had our doubts. But little did we know that age had nothing to do with your ability to lead us spiritually. From the very beginning, your deep desire to nurture our families and help us grow in faith became clear. You have guided us with such passion and devotion that our hearts yearn for more—more of God's love, more understanding and a deeper relationship with our Lord. Thank you Father Damian for your unwavering love, support and commitment to our parish. We appreciate you each and every day. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

*Happy Pastor Appreciation
Day from Your Blessed Sacrament Church Family.*
